Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues.—Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, by a long continued series of marvellous cures, that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equaled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed the Cherry Pectoral has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded, if the remedy be taken in season.—Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and otherwise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—The Traveler's Insurance Company of Hartford are likely to worry Mrs. Savage of New Haven into a compromise of her claim of $5,000, the amount of insurance on the life her late husband. They have kept Mrs. Savage waiting for her money since October, 1870, on the plea that Savage committed suicide; and now that the evidence shows that he was murdered, the company take the case to the Supreme Court on the ground that Mrs. Savage was never the lawful wife of the murdered man. The history of the case, neatly printed, would be a capital assistant for life insurance agents in general to carry round with them.

—The Boston Advertiser of the 17th inst. says: "New York ice dealers are in this market looking for a supply, the breaking up there having left the dealers with half a supply, with no prospect of another freeze. The annual consumption in New York city is about a million tons. Cutting is now at a standstill. A large portion of fresh ponds remain uncut, and a short cold snap will enable cutters to resume work. Spy pond is mostly broken up. The Boston Ice Company has its full supply, and there has been enough cut to supply a full season's demand for Boston and vicinity."

—The oldest Mason in America having been sufficiently buried, we begin a series of burials of the oldest Odd Fellow in the world, this modern order being a home institution. John G. Potts, whose funeral occurred at Galena, Ill., Sunday, was initiated in lodge No. 1, at Philadelphia, September, 1825, was M. W. G. M. of Pennsylvania in 1829, had the distinction of being arrested in 1839, together with Geore M. Dallas, during the anti-secret society spasm, and in 1831 was district deputy for the northwestern states north of 40°, and in that capacity instituted a great number of lodges. His body was followed to the grave by over 600 Odd Fellows on foot, and 500 persons in carriages and sleighs.

—Did it ever occur to young ladies, say from fifteen to eighteen, and young ladies from eighteen to thirty—for a young lady may certainly reach thirty—that men of the age from sixty to seventy, or even from fifty to sixty, have some claims to seats in the cars in preference to those who are young in years and robust in health? We often see both old men and men of infirm health standing for a mile or more in the cars, while both young men and young women are enjoying their seats. The law of right makes one man's money and, therefore, his legal claims, as good as those of another; but not so the law of courtesy, which tells us to regard age before youth. Politeness, too, consists not more in the act done than in the manner of doing it, and so really good manners are as often found in the warm-hearted clod-hopper as in the well-bred gentleman.

—The Daily Vicksburgher relates that recently a colored man from the country happened in Vicksburgh, and wanting to buy some bacon he met with a rascally dealer who accommodated him at a very low price. He soon discovered, however, that the meat was spoiled, and insisted on the dealer rescinding the bargain. This the latter refused to do, and the colored man appealed to Justice Brooks, who summoned the dealer, with all his bad meat, before him; and the evidence of the unfit condition of the meat being apparent to all the senses, his Honor pronounced judgment as follows: "You have violated the law. You have been guilty of a crime which endangers the lives of your fellow beings. That meat, sir, would kill any man, and I know it, and you know it. Now, sir, it is ordered by this court that all this meat before us, and all similar meat in your possession, be forfeited by you, and that it be sent to the County Poor House.

—H. H., in her "Bits of Talk," is impressed with the children of Nova Scotia, who are superior in appearance, size, and health to the children of the New England and Middle States. There was scarcely a sickly one among them; such brilliant cheeks, such merry eyes, such evident strength; broad-shouldered, straight, and sturdy, and their faces wore a quiet, unharrassed expression. The climate has undoubtedly something to do with this, the air being moist, and the mercury rarely rising above 80° or falling below 10°. There are no public schools in Nova Scotia, and in contrasting the state of the children with a similar class in the United States H. H. comes to the broad conclusion that it is better to have no schools at all than to have such public schools as are now killing off our children. In Massachusetts more than two-fifths of all the children die before they are twelve years old. In Nova Scotia the proportion is less than one-third. In Massachusetts the mortality from disease of the brain and nervous system is eleven per cent.; in Nova Scotia it is only eight per cent. So it seems that to have rosy, ruddy, calm children we must reorganize our schools, and taking Nova Scotia for an example, no child should be sent to school under seven years of age, or kept in school more than six hours a day, with an hour's intermission, and no learning lessons out of school allowed.

Trinity's Wealth and Policy.

The Year Book of Trinity parish, New York, deals with the fairy stories of the wealth of that corporation in a summary way. It says much . . . the property held by the parish yields no income. This includes the church yards of Trinity and St. Paul's chapel, much of the burial ground on Hudson street, and the cemetery at Carmansville. These not only yield nothing, but are a source of considerable yearly expense. In Trinity Cemetery the sale of plots produces a small sum yearly, which, with much more, is expended in improvements in the cemetery itself, Leaving out the account of the unproductive portion of the estate and estimating only that part which yields an income, "the property in all probability is not worth more than from $7,000,000 to $8,000,000. The entire income from all sources of revenue during the last financial year was in round numbers only about $500,000." Of this not a dollar is hoarded. Much is consumed by the expenses of the estate, and one-tenth is given to the poor outside the parish. Indeed the cases for aid have been so frequent and imperative that works of great importance to the parish have been delayed by compliance. Sixteen years ago the policy of the corporation had been for years the extension of the influence of the Episcopal Church in this state. Gifts to churches were freely made and secured by mortgages on the property of the beneficiary church, to prevent the alienation of that property. A pursuance of this policy till now, on the old scale, would have seriously crippled Trinity's finances. A definite change was made. Gifts were restricted to the diocese of New York, and finally to the parish proper, except in cases where poor churches had become dependent on the corporation. Later still, as the upward growth of New York threatened to leave deserted the ancient church building down town, Trinity devoted itself to maintaining public worship in the old field, while the growth of the parish in the upper part of the city was also to be carefully attended to. The down town regions are regarded as a special field, and it is held that a great part of the means of the corporation should be spent in ministering to their spiritual welfare. Accordingly nine churches are maintained either wholly or in great part for that purpose, and the work is extended as fast as the means at command permit. There are eighteen New York churches outside the parish which, as mentioned above, have become partly dependent upon it and still receive its aid.

VEGETINE

PURIFIES THE BLOOD and RESTORES THE HEALTH.

SEVENTY-ONE YEARS OF AGE.

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 22, 1870.

MR. STEVENS—Dear Sir: I am seventy-one years of age; have suffered many years with Kidney Complaint, weakness in my back and stomach. I was induced by friends to try your VEGETINE, and I think it the best medicine for weakness of the Kidneys I ever used. I have tried many remedies for this complaint, and never found so much relief as from the VEGETINE. It strengthens and invigorates the whole system. Many of my acquaintances have taken it, and I believe it to be good for all the complaints for which it is recommended.

Yours truly, JOSIAH H. SHERMAN.

A Source of Great Anxiety.

My daughter has been receiving great benefit from the use of VEGETINE. Her declining health was a source of great anxiety to all of her friends. A few bottles of the VEGETINE restored her health, strength and appetite. N. H. TILDEN,
Insurance and Real Estate Agent, No. 49 Sears Building.
BOSTON, Mass., June 5, 1872.

Recommend it Heartily.

SOUTH BOSTON, Feb. 7, 1870.

MR. STEVENS—Dear Sir: I have taken several bottles of your VEGETINE, and am convinced it is a valuable remedy for Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaint, and general debility of the system. I can heartily recommend it to all suffering from the above complaints. Yours respectfully,
MRS. MUNROE PARKER, 396 Athens street.

WHAT IS NEEDED.

BOSTON, Feb. 13, 1871.

MR. H. R. STEVENS—Dear Sir: About one year since I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility. VEGETINE was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefited by its use. I procured the article and, after using several bottles, was restored to health, and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for those complaints for which it is especially prepared, and would cheerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health.

Respectfully yours,
U. L. PETTINGILL,
Firm of S. M. Pettengill & Co., 10 State St., Boston.

WHEREAS, DEFAULT HAS been made in the payment of money secured by a mortgage dated the 1st day of April, 1870, executed by John D. Deyo, widower, of the Town of Shawangunk, in the County of Ulster and State of New York, to Jane Smith, then the wife of Gardinier Smith, of the Town of Hurley, in the County and State aforesaid, to secure the payment of thirty-seven hundred dollars with interest thereon from the date thereof on the first day of April, 1872, and which mortgage was recorded in the Clerk's office of said County of Ulster in Book No. 110 of mortgages, on page 285, &c., on the 21st day of March, 1872, at 2½ o'clock P. M.

And whereas the said Jane Smith died intestate on the 11th day of January, 1874, leaving Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen, all above twenty-one years of age, as her only children and heirs-at-law, her surviving.

And whereas the said Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen, duly assigned and transferred all their right, title and interest in and to the said mortgage, and the bond accompanying the same, to their father, Gardinier Smith, by assignment dated the 31st day of January, 1874, duly recorded in the said Ulster County Clerk's office.

And whereas the amount claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of the first publication of this notice is the sum of three thousand nine hundred and ninety-one dollars and sixteen cents, to-wit: $3,700 of principal and $291.16 of interest, and which is the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the said mortgage and the power of sale therein contained and duly recorded as aforesaid and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described, at Public Auction at the front door of the Court House, in the City of Kingston, in the County of Ulster and State of New York, on the 20th day of May, 1874, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

The premises are described in the mortgage as follows: All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land situate in the Town of Shawangunk aforesaid, and is known and distinguished as being the same farm now owned and occupied by John D. Deyo, and is described in three lots or parcels of land as follows, namely: Beginning with the lot the said John D. Deyo purchased from Willet Leuderman and his wife Sarah, and at a corner on the west side of the highway leading to Kingston, then as the needle pointed in 1820 north fifty degrees twenty minutes, west twenty-eight chains fourteen links to a corner of a lot of land sold to Joseph Eckert, then along the same south forty-two and three-quarter degrees west four chains seventy-one links, then north forty-five degrees forty-five minutes west seven chains to the center of a highway leading to Rutsonville; the two last courses are as the needle now points; then as it pointed in 1820 south twenty-nine degrees and forty-five minutes west seven chains and fifty links to a lot bought by Samuel Aldrich and others, then south fifty degrees twenty minutes east twenty-nine chains thirty links to a stone set by the westerly side of the aforesaid highway, then along the same to the beginning, containing thirty-six acres of land.

Also all that other lot purchased from Samuel Aldrich and others, and bounded as follows, namely: North by the above described lot, east by the public highway, south by lands of Peter Van Aken, west by the lands of Abram Vernooy, containing forty acres of land more or less.

Also all that other lot of land which is known as the same farm formerly owned by Jonathan Terwilliger, and is bounded as follows, namely: Beginning at a corner of land belonging to the heirs of William Rosekrans, from thence south seventy-five degrees and thirty minutes west two chains sixteen links to the line of the first described lot, then along the same north forty-seven degrees west ten chains thirty-one links, then north forty degrees and forty-five minutes east four chains and seventy-four links, then south thirty-two degrees forty-five minutes east eleven chains ninety-four links to the beginning, containing three acres and eight-tenths of an acre of land.

THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN.

VOLUME FOR 1874.

THE CULTIVATOR AND COUNTRY GENTLEMEN, for the past forty years, has ranked, both in this country and abroad, as the Standard Journal of American Agriculture. The Editors and Proprietors, in addition to their own personal labors, are regularly assisted by a very large number of Special Correspondents and Regular Contributors, among whom are included many Leading Agriculturists, in all parts of the country, east and west—and by over Five Hundred Occasional and Voluntary Writers, directly in the ranks of the best Farmers and Horticulturists of nearly every state in the Union. With the co-operation of so large a corps of practical men, this journal is intended to possess exceptional value as the chosen Medium of Interchange among all classes interested in the Products and Fertility of the land—those who cultivate and those who consume—the buyer and shipper, as well as the first owner of the crop—breeders of improved animals and their customers—manufacturers of improved machinery and those who purchase and employ it—nurserymen and fruit raisers—and, especially, to supply fuller and better data as to the progress, prospects and returns of each successive season, as throwing light upon one of the most important of all questions—When to Buy and when to Sell.

TERMS—THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is published weekly, on the following terms, when paid strictly in advance:—One copy, one year, $2,50; Four copies, $10, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the club; Ten copies, $20, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the club.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

or Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues.—Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, by a long continued series of marvellous cures, that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equaled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed the Cherry Pectoral has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded, if the remedy be taken in season.—Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and otherwise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—The Traveler's Insurance Company of Hartford are likely to worry Mrs. Savage of New Haven into a compromise of her claim of $5,000, the amount of insurance on the life her late husband. They have kept Mrs. Savage waiting for her money since October, 1870, on the plea that Savage committed suicide; and now that the evidence shows that he was murdered, the company take the case to the Supreme Court on the ground that Mrs. Savage was never the lawful wife of the murdered man. The history of the case, neatly printed, would be a capital assistant for life insurance agents in general to carry round with them.

—The Boston Advertiser of the 17th inst. says: "New York ice dealers are in this market looking for a supply, the breaking up there having left the dealers with half a supply, with no prospect of another freeze. The annual consumption in New York city is about a million tons. Cutting is now at a standstill. A large portion of fresh ponds remain uncut, and a short cold snap will enable cutters to resume work. Spy pond is mostly broken up. The Boston Ice Company has its full supply, and there has been enough cut to supply a full season's demand for Boston and vicinity."

—The oldest Mason in America having been sufficiently buried, we begin a series of burials of the oldest Odd Fellow in the world, this modern order being a home institution. John G. Potts, whose funeral occurred at Galena, Ill., Sunday, was initiated in lodge No. 1, at Philadelphia, September, 1825, was M. W. G. M. of Pennsylvania in 1829, had the distinction of being arrested in 1839, together with Geore M. Dallas, during the anti-secret society spasm, and in 1831 was district deputy for the northwestern states north of 40°, and in that capacity instituted a great number of lodges. His body was followed to the grave by over 600 Odd Fellows on foot, and 500 persons in carriages and sleighs.

—Did it ever occur to young ladies, say from fifteen to eighteen, and young ladies from eighteen to thirty—for a young lady may certainly reach thirty—that men of the age from sixty to seventy, or even from fifty to sixty, have some claims to seats in the cars in preference to those who are young in years and robust in health? We often see both old men and men of infirm health standing for a mile or more in the cars, while both young men and young women are enjoying their seats. The law of right makes one man's money and, therefore, his legal claims, as good as those of another; but not so the law of courtesy, which tells us to regard age before youth. Politeness, too, consists not more in the act done than in the manner of doing it, and so really good manners are as often found in the warm-hearted clod-hopper as in the well-bred gentleman.

—The Daily Vicksburgher relates that recently a colored man from the country happened in Vicksburgh, and wanting to buy some bacon he met with a rascally dealer who accommodated him at a very low price. He soon discovered, however, that the meat was spoiled, and insisted on the dealer rescinding the bargain. This the latter refused to do, and the colored man appealed to Justice Brooks, who summoned the dealer, with all his bad meat, before him; and the evidence of the unfit condition of the meat being apparent to all the senses, his Honor pronounced judgment as follows: "You have violated the law. You have been guilty of a crime which endangers the lives of your fellow beings. That meat, sir, would kill any man, and I know it, and you know it. Now, sir, it is ordered by this court that all this meat before us, and all similar meat in your possession, be forfeited by you, and that it be sent to the County Poor House.

—H. H., in her "Bits of Talk," is impressed with the children of Nova Scotia, who are superior in appearance, size, and health to the children of the New England and Middle States. There was scarcely a sickly one among them; such brilliant cheeks, such merry eyes, such evident strength; broad-shouldered, straight, and sturdy, and their faces wore a quiet, unharrassed expression. The climate has undoubtedly something to do with this, the air being moist, and the mercury rarely rising above 80° or falling below 10°. There are no public schools in Nova Scotia, and in contrasting the state of the children with a similar class in the United States H. H. comes to the broad conclusion that it is better to have no schools at all than to have such public schools as are now killing off our children. In Massachusetts more than two-fifths of all the children die before they are twelve years old. In Nova Scotia the proportion is less than one-third. In Massachusetts the mortality from disease of the brain and nervous system is eleven per cent.; in Nova Scotia it is only eight per cent. So it seems that to have rosy, ruddy, calm children we must reorganize our schools, and taking Nova Scotia for an example, no child should be sent to school under seven years of age, or kept in school more than six hours a day, with an hour's intermission, and no learning lessons out of school allowed.

Trinity's Wealth and Policy.

The Year Book of Trinity parish, New York, deals with the fairy stories of the wealth of that corporation in a summary way. It says much . . the property held by the parish yields no income. This includes the church yards of Trinity and St. Paul's chapel, much of the burial ground on Hudson street, and the cemetery at Carmansville. These not only yield nothing, but are a source of considerable yearly expense. In Trinity Cemetery the sale of plots produces a small sum yearly, which, with much more, is expended in improvements in the cemetery itself, Leaving out the account of the unproductive portion of the estate and estimating only that part which yields an income, "the property in all probability is not worth more than from $7,000,000 to $8,000,000. The entire income from all sources of revenue during the last financial year was in round numbers only about $500,000. Of this not a dollar is hoarded. Much is consumed by the expenses of the estate, and one-tenth is given to the poor outside the parish. Indeed the cases for aid have been so frequent and imperative that works of great importance to the parish have been delayed by compliance. Sixteen years ago the policy of the corporation had been for years the extension of the influence of the Episcopal Church in this state. Gifts to churches were freely made and secured by mortgages on the property of the beneficiary church, to prevent the alienation of that property. A pursuance of this policy till now, on the old scale, would have seriously crippled Trinity's finances. A definite change was made. Gifts were restricted to the diocese of New York, and finally to the parish proper, except in cases where poor churches had become dependent on the corporation. Later still, as the upward growth of New York threatened to leave deserted the ancient church building down town, Trinity devoted itself to maintaining public worship in the old field, while the growth of the parish in the upper part of the city was also to be carefully attended to. The down town regions are regarded as a special field, and it is held that a great part of the means of the corporation should be spent in ministering to their spiritual welfare. Accordingly nine churches are maintained either wholly or in great part for that purpose, and the work is extended as fast as the means at command permit. There are eighteen New York churches outside the parish which, as mentioned above, have become partly dependent upon it and still receive its aid.

VEGETINE

PURIFIES THE BLOOD and RESTORES THE HEALTH.

SEVENTY-ONE YEARS OF AGE.

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 22, 1870.

MR. STEVENS—Dear Sir: I am seventy-one years of age; have suffered many years with Kidney Complaint, weakness in my back and stomach. I was induced by friends to try your VEGETINE, and I think it the best medicine for weakness of the Kidneys I ever used. I have tried many remedies for this complaint, and never found so much relief as from the VEGETINE. It strengthens and invigorates the whole system. Many of my acquaintances have taken it, and I believe it to be good for all the complaints for which it is recommended.

Yours truly, JOSIAH H. SHERMAN.

A Source of Great Anxiety.

My daughter has been receiving great benefit from the use of VEGETINE. Her declining health was a source of great anxiety to all of her friends. A few bottles of the VEGETINE restored her health, strength and appetite. N. H. TILDEN,

Insurance and Real Estate Agent, No. 49 Scars Building.

BOSTON, Mass., June 5, 1872.

Recommend it Heartily.

SOUTH BOSTON, Feb. 7, 1870.

MR. STEVENS—Dear Sir: I have taken several bottles of your VEGETINE, and am convinced it is a valuable remedy for Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaint, and general debility of the system. I can heartily recommend it to all suffering from the above complaints. Yours respectfully,

MRS. MUNROE PARKER, 396 Athens street.

WHAT IS NEEDED.

BOSTON, Feb. 13, 1871.

MR. H. R. STEVENS—Dear Sir: About one year since I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility. VEGETINE was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefited by its use. I procured the article and, after using several bottles, was restored to health, and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for those complaints for which it is especially prepared, and would cheerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health.

Respectfully yours,
U. L. PETTINGILL,
Firm of S. M. Pettengill & Co., 10 State St., Boston. F19w4

VEGETINE extends its influence into every part of the human organism, commencing with its foundation, correcting diseased action and restoring vital powers, creating a healthy formation and purification of the blood, driving out disease, and leaving Nature to perform its allotted task. WHEREAS, DEFAULT HAS been made in the payment of money secured by a mortgage dated the 1st day of April, 1870, executed by John D. Deyo, widower, of the Town of Shawangunk, in the County of Ulster and State of New York, to Jane Smith, then the wife of Gardinier Smith, of the Town of Hurley, in the County and State aforesaid, to secure the payment of thirty-seven hundred dollars with interest thereon from the date thereof on the first day of April, 1873, and which mortgage was recorded in the Clerk's office of said County of Ulster in Book No. 110 of mortgages, on page 235, &c., on the 21st day of March, 1873, at 9½ o'clock P. M.

And whereas the said Jane Smith died intestate on the 11th day of January, 1874, leaving Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen, all above twenty-one years of age, as her only children and heirs-at-law, her surviving.

And whereas the said Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen, duly assigned and transferred all their right, title and interest in and to the said mortgage, and the bond accompanying the same, to their father, Gardinier Smith, by assignment dated the 31st day of January, 1874, duly recorded in the said Ulster County Clerk's office.

And whereas the amount claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of the first publication of this notice is the sum of three thousand nine hundred and ninety-one dollars and sixteen cents, to-wit: $3,700 of principal and $291.16 of interest, and which is the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the said mortgage and the power of sale therein contained and duly recorded as aforesaid and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described, at Public Auction at the front door of the Court House, in the City of Kingston, in the County of Ulster and State of New York, on the 20th day of May, 1874, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

The premises are described in the mortgage as follows: All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land situate in the Town of Shawangunk aforesaid, and is known and distinguished as being the same farm now owned and occupied by John D. Deyo, and is described in three lots or parcels of land as follows, namely: Beginning with the lot the said John D. Deyo purchased from Willet Leudeman and his wife Sarah, and at a corner on the west side of the highway leading to Kingston, then as the needle pointed in 1820 north fifty degrees twenty minutes, west twenty-eight chains fourteen links to a corner of a lot of land sold to Joseph Eckert, then along the same south forty-two and three-quarter degrees west four chains seventy-one links, then north forty-five degrees forty-five minutes west seven chains to the center of a highway leading to Kutsonville; the two last courses are as the needle now points; then as it pointed in 1820 south twenty-nine degrees and forty-five minutes west seven chains and fifty links to a lot bought by Samuel Aldrich and others, then south fifty degrees twenty minutes east twenty-nine chains thirty links to a stone set by the westerly side of the aforesaid highway, then along the same to the beginning, containing thirty-six acres of land.

Also all that other lot purchased from Samuel Aldrich and others, and bounded as follows, namely: North by the above described lot, east by the public highway, south by lands of Peter Van Aken, west by the lands of Abram Vernooy, containing forty acres of land more or less.

Also all that other lot of land which is known as the same farm formerly owned by Jonathan Terwilliger, and is bounded as follows, namely: Beginning at a corner of land belonging to the heirs of William Rosekrans, from thence south seventy-five degrees and thirty minutes west two chains sixteen links to the line of the first described lot, then along the same north forty-seven degrees west ten chains thirty-one links, then north forty degrees and forty-five minutes east four chains and seventy-four links, then south thirty-two degrees forty-five minutes east eleven chains ninety-four links to the beginning, containing three acres and eight-tenths of an acre of land.

Dated February 23, 1874.

THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN.

VOLUME FOR 1874.

THE CULTIVATOR AND COUNTRY GENTLEMEN, for the past forty years, has ranked, both in this country and abroad, as the Standard Journal of American Agriculture. The Editors and Proprietors, in addition to their own personal labors, are regularly assisted by a very large number of Special Correspondents and Regular Contributors, among whom are included many Leading Agriculturists, in all parts of the country, east and west—and by over Five Hundred Occasional and Voluntary Writers, directly in the ranks of the best Farmers and Horticulturists of nearly every state in the Union. With the co-operation of so large a corps of practical men, this journal is intended to possess exceptional value as the chosen Medium of Intercommunication among all classes interested in the Products and Fertility of the land—those who cultivate and those who consume—the buyer and shipper, as well as the first owner of the crop—breeders of improved animals and their customers—manufacturers of improved machinery and those who purchase and employ it—nurserymen and fruit raisers—and, especially, to supply fuller and better data as to the progress, prospects and returns of each successive season, as throwing light upon one of the most important of all questions—When to Buy and when to Sell.

TERMS—THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is published weekly, on the following terms, when paid strictly in advance:—One copy, one year, $2,50; Four copies, $10, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the club; Ten copies, $20, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the club.

The Daily Freeman.

Kingston, Thursday Morning, Feb. 26.

Col. Higginson likes enthusiasm and thinks the stump-orator often a "better fellow than the city editor who cuts him up." He prefers to "be choked with gas rather than be smothered with starch." To be sure. We are certain nobody will dispute the gallant Colonel's right to choose his method of suffocation. Yet starch is inodorous, while gas smells so bad.

The literary public is getting into quite a state of mind over the authorship of the Saxe-Holm stories. The publishers themselves are befuddled and beat. They thought they knew, but it turns out that they didn't. This suspense is dreadful; and in order to simplify the search by a unit, we hasten to disavow the authorship for ourselves. We could have written them if we had wanted to, but had no time.

Mrs. Ann Eliza Young, one of Brigham's wives, is upon the lecture platform. She tells an awful story about the polygamous life, and has an idea that if she could make herself heard in Washington, she could influence the powers there to do something towards abating polygamy. Poor thing; how useless such a mission would be she would find on entering a Congress one of whose members runs four wives and holds an honorable seat.

A New York daily of Tuesday, in commenting upon the death of Henry Smith, stated that his favorite amusement was draw-poker; and that the deceased played a game of forty-eight hours' duration a short time before his last illness, of which the illness was the result. We have no wish to cast any aspersion upon the fame of the dead, but if draw-poker is so fascinating and so fatal a game it becomes the Police Department to see that a love for it does not spread among the force.

Senator Schurz has upset all the cunning devices of the inflationists, and the Senate has not a financial rag to its back. One point upon which he let in a flood of wholesome light was that the abundance of money in the west is not due to the issue of $25,000,000 more or less of the legal tender reserve. A new policy is now badly wanted, and Morton, Ferry and Logan must set themselves to the evolution of one without delay. Otherwise Schurz's ideas may infect the Senate to a degree which will take all the balloonism out of it.

If this country was originally discovered by the old Norse sea-kings, what were they seeking here; did they hope to find a nice land south of Iceland, and did they build that old tower in Newport on their new tour through that port? And do the legends make sure that they left imprints of their leg-ends on the sands of New England? If so can Canon Kingsley tell us why Bjarne Grimolfsen omitted to leave his mark on the continent for the benefit of his heirs? And why does the Canon roar over the bones of Columbus? And did the Norsemen find any steam Indians here when they came? We pause.

We really must express a hope that the practice of publishing the finding of post-mortem examinations held upon the bodies of conspicuous deceased people will not extend. If it is desirable in the interest of medical science to dissect in certain cases to find cause of death, very well; but we fail to understand what interest the general public can have in the matter. Besides, the doctors, perhaps inevitably, give us the results of their cutting and carvings in the technical language of their guild, darkening information in that way even if we needed to have it; and we don't.

The Erie Railway has caught the strike epidemic, possibly from the Midland, for a poison virus from a child may infect a giant. No passenger trains were running yesterday west of Hornellsville and no freight trains west of Susquehanna. This trouble is in keeping with the average luck of the Erie. We do not think this minute of any other great trunk line which is so constantly in hot water. We should say that the road appears to prosper but little better under Watson than it did three or four years ago, if the reputations of Fisk and Gould were not in such bad odor with truly good railroad men.

Miss Marietta Flag—we suppose she is a miss—is awfully mad over the sale of her property in payment of taxes which she refused to meet. She calls the Sheriff "an insignificant duplication of Benedict Arnold." This is hard on Arnold, who was a notorious friend of woman. Miss Flag, so to speak, nails herself to the mast on this tax business, and floats defiantly in the very faces of "those horrid men." She declares herself "one of the minute-women of the new Revolution." We stand in sympathetic union with Miss Flag, and assure her many a successful battle has opened less hopefully.

The anti-rum war has reached the home of Andrew Johnson of Tennessee. There the ladies are certain of the support of a great and good man. Andy is a temperance man by instinct and experience. With that far-sighted nose of his he can smell the "critter" afar off, and accurately determine its locality and quality. Andy is too modest and retiring to put himself in the van of the ladies' leonine legions, but as a committee of reference he will be worth his weight in lemon-sugar. The great ex-Everything is not exactly a religious man, yet his heart is full of tenderness and his head is an ocean of tears. He will weep when called upon and make a speech if required. Greenville can't be a very bad place at the worst, and we are confident that the few rumsellers who have managed to eke out a slender living there will only have to be reminded of the insult their trade is to Andy, its one distinguished resident, to send the contents of their demijohns to the home of disembottled spirits.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent, after giving an account of how the Massachusetts delegation presented itself before Gen. Grant to try to induce him to withdraw the nomination of Simmons, goes on to say: "The President informed the delegation that if he had thought the nomination would have provoked so much opposition he should not have made it, but it having now been made, on what he regarded as suitable recommendations, he did not feel at liberty to recall it except upon the request of those recommending it." We quote the above not to question its facts but to call attention to the quality of the Presidential reasoning. If, as Mr. Grant concedes, the nomination ought not to have been made in the face of such opposition as it has met with, could that opposition have been anticipated, then, now that the opposition has shown itself, why should not the nomination be recalled? To this conundrum the President replies that he considered the recommendations good and that he cannot repudiate them at this late hour. Why not? If an anticipated opposition would, in the President's judgment, have proved those recommendations inadequate (and this he concedes) how are they worth any more respect because they are now proved to be erroneous? Is that piece of logic on crutches the sole referee in this business, or are those "recommendations" held above par on account of the miscellaneous usefulness of the men who made them?

Is This a Materialistic Age?

Many thoughtful men and women, honestly and deeply interested in the character and direction of modern opinion, insist that we have fallen upon an age of materialism. Upon this belief they found serious apprehensions concerning the religious future of the current generation. Investigation is so bold and assiduous into every department and field of facts that they who cling to time-honored faiths as the only sure anchorage for a human soul, are pardonably solicitous about the outcome of it all. What the microscope tells as to the composition of the blood and what the spectroscope asserts concerning the metallic structure of the stars are to these good people secrets with which finite man has no business to meddle; and whose possession by him is not unlike the holding of gems stolen from the neck of a murdered queen. It is imagined that the kind of knowledge created and formulated by the constant and universal prying of men into hitherto unexplored mysteries is in some way inimical to the growth of reverence for the Supreme Being and consequently damaging to the influence of those practical systems of salvation and spiritual culture which have been set up. The only rational ground for such a fear as this would be the production on the part of science of a degraded or materialized habit of thought in the minds of men at large. Now, in the few sentences which it is possible for us to devote to the point at issue, we desire to say that this is not the tendency of recent knowledge. Our grandfathers were saddled and weighed down with the grossest materialism. Those "pious and painefull" old gentlemen supposed the earth to be an inexorable mass of soil, rock and water, unchangeable except by the last mighty and miraculous fire which should finally give them "the new heavens and the new earth" of the apostolic prophecy. That was materialism indeed; heavy enough to oppress more tender spirits than theirs. But we have changed all that. We see now that nothing is at rest; mountains are being taken down here and erected there—seas are altering the coast-lines—slow changes of climate are originating new varieties of fruit and new orders of men—clay, flint and limestone come and go like snow-flakes, though not quite so soon—a lump of granite is but a balance of forces and is not possessed of an identity of its own—all is force, energy, and is definitely related to every solidified fact under Heaven. This is not materialism, it is dynamism; the law of regulated spiritual power. All things are found to be mutually convertible—gravity may become heat, heat may become affinity—affinity may turn into heat again. The man who sees this and really appreciates it is so much nearer to a true notion of how divinity works through and crystallizes into material forms; and so much nearer a worthy apprehension of Christianity. No nation was ever so materialistic and beastly as the Jews under Moses, and none so ignorant of "science." The whole case is not hard to understand; when men please to be wicked, no creed will help them—when they care to be good, every atom of knowledge is of use to them. If the over-zealous defenders of the Bible would disturb themselves less about their pet interpretations and leave its main truths to justify themselves or fall, there would come a time of mighty comfort in the churches, and a valuable saving of breath and printers' ink. This is the most spiritual, the most progressive, the most religious, the most philanthropic age that ever was; and every new fact coaxed down from the stars, dug out of the earth, or cut out of the human body, is a pebble in the pavement of the city of all saints.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the bill to equalize the distribution of currency, the pending motion being that of Buckingham to recommit the bill to the Finance Committee, with the instructions agreed upon, directing the committee to report in favor of increasing the volume of national bank currency to $400,000,000.

The discussion was continued by Merrimon, Sherman and Allison. Morton and Schurz became involved in a personal discussion, in which both were called to order by the Chair for unparliamentary language and wound up by a mutual disclaimer of intention to offend, both speaking in a Pickwickian sense.

The CHAIR laid before the Senate a message of the President in regard to the Centennial Exhibition. Ordered printed and to lay on the table.

The Senate went into executive session. After a short time the doors were reopened and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

The House at half-past one resumed the consideration of the franking bill.

Mr. COBB of Kansas supported the bill, for one reason, that it was the only means of keeping the people informed of the acts of their representatives in Congress. If there was to be no opportunity for this except through reporters for newspapers then the source of power was in the hands of the gentlemen in the gallery and not in the hands of the members themselves.

Mr. WARD of Illinois opposed the bill because the Philadelphia Convention and local Republican conventions had declared against the franking privilege and he had not learned that any considerable body of citizens favored its restoration.

Mr. WILLIAMS of Massachusetts had been a disciple of Horace Greeley for many years and from him had imbibed the spirit of opposition to franking privileges. He had been one of the most fierce workers in its abolition. His later experience on the Postal and other committees had revolutionized his opinions and now he favored the bill under consideration.

Mr. BUTLER of Massachusetts favored the bill in lengthy remarks, in which he paid his compliments to the newspapers in his usual manner.

At the close of Butler's remarks Mr. PACKER of Pennsylvania, who has charge of the bill, demanded the previous question, refusing to admit any amendment except a substitute offered by Hale of New York to repeal the law which abolishes the franking privilege.

The previous question was seconded—112 to 64. The vote on ordering the main question was taken by yeas and nays and resulted in yeas 126, nays 117, the Democrats almost uniformly voting in the negative.

Further action on the bill went over till tomorrow and then at 4.45 o'clock the House took a recess. The evening session is to be for the consideration of the bill to revise the statutes.

—When the late John Milton Earle, of Worcester, Mass., was a member of the Legislature at the same time that he was editor of the Spy, he was in the habit of writing his leaders in the cars on the way to Worcester, at night, frequently penciling his criticisms on public men and measures on the blank margin of the Boston Journal. His penmanship was singularly clear and beautiful, and, although the reception of an entire Journal as the "copy" for a leader was the subject of many jokes in the composition room, the printer who drew the "take" seldom had any difficulty in reading the manuscript.

—The trial of the alleged murderer of Mary E. Lowell is going on in Auburn. In the midst of it a trunk arrived at the depot marked "Mary E. Lowell," and the rumor spread that the supposed victim had returned safe and sound. The owner of the trunk was hunted up, and found to be a namesake.

THE SCHOONMAKER AND COOPER CASE.

Adjourned Hearing—Continuation of the Case.

S. D. Coykendall resumed upon the cross-examination by Mr. Fowler, testified—Am not positive whether Cooper called on me more than once in relation to the $27,000 mortgage; I think he said he had no idea that the $25,000 of bonds had been stolen; he said he would let me know when they wanted me as a witness in the Brodhead reference; Mr. S. and myself examined the ledger from which I took the memorandum, together at the desk; Mr. S. remarked that that might be important evidence, and I said I would take a copy of it, and I did so in lead pencil; Mr. S. says he once asked me for a copy of that memorandum, but I have no recollection of his so doing; any one at any time could have a copy of it; it purported to be an account of certain bonds, certain money paid for certain purposes; whether I or Mr. S. first discovered the particular page I can't say; there were many things upon this particular page in the ledger; it contained items of money paid for services at Albany in procuring the passage of the law and expenses of gentlemen going to New York to see about printing bonds, and also contained an account of bonds sold to Bray and Bruyn, and other items that I can't now distinctly remember; I believe Mr. S. and myself did a large part of the work in examining the Treasurer's books and papers, although every gentleman there took part; I think the committee were engaged four or five days; think a report was made to the Board immediately after the examination was completed; think the bulk of the report was drawn by Mr. S., with some suggestions from myself, and probably from others; Mr. Foland was in charge of the office when the committee were there; believe he was there most of the time; believe the safe was locked during the intermissions; think the keys were delivered to Foland every day; don't remember saying that I could get along there without Foland; remember some words that passed between McKinstry and Cornell, but no altercation; the report presented to the Board by the committee is simply a statement of Brodhead's books; assisted the committee in drawing it; believe I assisted in verifying it; it was a correct abstract of his books; very few if any vouchers were in the office; there were not vouchers to all the items; so far as the report shows I presume there were vouchers; F. J. Hecker was my clerk, and he made most of the entries upon the bond book; I examined the coupons in the aggregate; Mr. Hasbrouck's report shows there was paid by him in 1873, of coupons falling due March 1st, 1870, $140; March 1st, 1871, $238; March 1st, 1872, $665; I presume those represent bona fide cash payments; unless they were he couldn't get credit by the Board of Supervisors on his account; don't think the investigating committee came to the conclusion at one time to report an over-issue of bonds, but they came to the conclusion the whole amount had been sold; I did not say to Foland, "We can get along without you, and we can help ourselves to whatever we want out of this safe;" when we came there I don't remember Tuthill saying that Foland would help us to anything out of the safe, and that I said I didn't want him; don't remember taking anything out of the safe; it was not usual for me to get back there some time before the rest of the committee at the noon recess, and be there alone; the committee dined together, as I recollect, and most of the committee went back together; don't think there was any time I went in there alone; during the investigation Brodhead was sick, and I saw him personally once; met Dr. Eltinge there once; went to Brodhead's at the request of some gentlemen, and I there said Brodhead's deficiency was large, and if he had securities of any kind, that even were his deficiency $300,000, I would furnish the money if securities of anywhere near the value were placed in my hands; I would pay the money over to the county, and keep him in his position; I made that offer to Brodhead in presence of Dr. Eltinge and another person; when I became Treasurer, I refused to take any notes of hand, being advised that I had no legal right to take them, but I made an arrangement by which certain notes were cashed by Cornell, and the money transferred to the credit of the county; I believe Mr. Schoonmaker made the entire examination of the trust fund; can't tell the amount of interest on Ulster county bonded debt in the year 1870; cannot tell whether any of the principal was paid or not; don't remember whether any part of the principal was extinguished March 1st, 1871; the principal of the bonded debt March 1 was $1,421,-500, and the principal debt had increased, I believe, on the first of March, 1872; the amount appropriated by the Board for the payment of taxes on the bonded debt for 1872, and one or two years prior thereto, was $99,505, I believe; there was a certain amount received from Brodhead, and from that fund it was understood that the bonds which were falling due were to be paid, and the accrued interest on the new bond issue was to be paid; the county appropriated the same amount they had for years. There was appropriated a certain amount from the New Bond Account, and transferred to the interest account.

Re-Direct—In the large safe was an iron box about 12 by 16 in front, and 12 inches deep; I believe it was not open except Foland opened and closed it again. The committee had no key to it, to my knowledge. There were before the committee no securities except the county bonds, and these were cancelled and of no value. No money was produced before the committee to be counted. Mr. Webster examined the entries upon the New Bond book, and reported that he found it correct. E. C. Litchfield is in bankruptcy, and E. B. Litchfield is reputed to be insolvent; E. B. lives in Brooklyn. I believe the R. & O. R. R. are insolvent, and not able to pay their debts.

Re-Cross—County bonds uncancelled would be negotiable by delivery; no checks or notes endorsed in blank were produced before the committee, to my recollection. Called upon Brodhead just previous to the committee's commencing work; knew there was a deficiency in his account by common rumor only. The coupons I paid are in the Treasurer's office, I believe; none were destroyed during my term. Don't know that it was reported at a public meeting the Litchfields were worth nine or seven million dollars. I heard gentlemen estimate them worth that amount.

Re-direct—The coupons were cancelled by being punched.

Re-Cross—The Brodhead coupons were examined by the committee, and cancelled after the amount had been determined and allowed by the committee. The coupons were always cancelled, so far as I know.

James R. Foland—During the summer and Fall of 1871 I was clerk in Treasurer's office; was sworn and examined in the Brodhead reference as to the $25,000 in bonds claimed to have been lost or stolen.

It was admitted that the witness testified before Referee Scott, among other things, as follows: "Recollect that Brodhead let me count a lot of bonds, take the numbers, and do them up; think there were $25,000 of them; I counted and tied them up and put them in the safe, as he told me I should; never did anything else with them; never saw them again to my knowledge, or heard anything about them until Brodhead was sick; he then asked me about them; I was not always present when the committee were investigating; the doors were not kept locked; the $39,300 bonds not signed were at Brodhead's house; before the bonds were signed they were all entered in a book, commencing with the $1,000 bonds, each series by itself; there was no record kept; when sold they were marked sold on the book; when I took the bonds I wrote opposite each number "sold;" the entries in the book, where "exchanged" was taken out and "sold" afterwards entered, were entered according to the directions of the Treasurer."

Witness then testified orally—Think I put up the bonds the day before Brodhead was taken sick; next day he went to New York; I put them up about ten o'clock at night; didn't put the bonds in the little iron box; had a key to the safe part of the time; at other times Brodhead had it; Charles Brodhead also had a key to it; never had both keys in my possession; think I kept the key because B. was going to New York the next day; don't recollect whether I opened the safe the next day; never took those $25,000 bonds; opened the safe the morning the committee came there; did not then look to see if the bonds were there; the package was not sealed, but tied up with red tape; there were two blotters kept in pencil in the office, and Brodhead would transfer from the blotters into his regular books; nothing was said to the committee about the bonds being put in the safe; I most emphatically state that I have no knowledge of what became of the $25,000 bonds; think I entered Brodhead's office in July, 1871; where a lot of bonds went together, we simply marked them "sold," without stating the party to whom they went; Charles Bray was charged with $113,600 worth of bonds; Bruyn acted only as agent to send bonds to the Albany Savings Bank; from the bond book I could not pick out the $25,000 which I put in the safe; Charles Brodhead was not sworn before Scott to my knowledge; did not refuse to disclose to Schoonmaker or Cooper anything in relation to the $25,000, or refuse to answer any questions they may have asked me about them; to my recollection they asked me no questions about those bonds.

Cross-Examined—In 1872 was a clerk in the Ulster County Bank; don't recollect Schoonmaker coming in there and asking me about the bonds, and my saying I did not pay any attention to them because I supposed Brodhead had taken them to New York; the last I saw of the old bond book it was in the investigating committee's hands; the old bond book contained the charge of $113,600 bonds against Charles Bray, Cashier; Coykendall and Schoonmaker examined the ledger, which book I suppose virtually was Brodhead's private book; "cash-book" he called it; Chas. Brodhead was taken sick about the time John was taken sick; Charles was confined to his bed; think he continued sick until the committee finished; Brodhead returned home sick the night of the day he went to New York; that was the beginning of his last sickness; he was brought to the office to open the small safe; he didn't succeed; used to go to Brodhead's house while sick; he was delirious, and was asking about the bonds and in order to quiet him I would tell him they were all right; I supposed then that he had taken them to New York; when the committee came there Coykendall allowed that the committee were capable of making the examination for themselves; I took it to mean that they didn't need my assistance; was not present all the while they were examining; on several occasions I found Coykendall in there alone.

Re-Direct Examination—Don't know where I last saw the old bond book, in the safe or on the table any way; had no talk with Brodhead as to what he was going to do with the $25,000 bonds; bonds were generally left unsigned by Brodhead till they were ready for sale; think he signed the $25,000 bonds that night just before I put them up; put them in the safe about 10 P. M.; the word "sold" was written on the bonds by Brodhead's direction.

Re-Cross—Made no entries in the bond book after Brodhead was taken sick.

Anthony Benson testified—Am Secretary of the Rondout Savings Bank, and do some insurance business; been Secretary and Treasurer of R. & O. R. R. Co. as well as a Director; no money was borrowed by the Railroad Co., to my knowledge, on the $27,000 mortgage which Coykendall executed to the Railroad Co.; my connection with the company ended in September, 1871.

Cross-Examined—No arrangement was made to borrow money upon that mortgage to my knowledge. The witness was examined at some length regarding his knowledge of the lands covered by the $27,000 mortgage, and thought that the fair market value of the whole land covered by the mortgage would not exceed $15,000.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Cross-Examination—I remember taking to Coykendall a deed for execution of property to O. M. Allaban; think the deed was prepared by direction of Board of Directors; Allaban was Vice President, I believe; my understanding was that the transfer was made to Allaban so he could handle it and do as he pleased; Coykendall refused to execute in that way; I did not report to any of the directors that he refused to execute, because thereby the company would lose $45,000, nor did I so state to Allaban; I did not represent to Coykendall at the time he executed the mortgage that the property was worth $35,000. The witness was then examined with great particularity as to parcels of land covered by the $27,000 mortgage; the substance being the witness did not consider the land worth more than $15,000.

James R. Foland recalled—Don't recollect that either of the committee asked me if any watchman was kept in the Treasurer's office; never said no bonds were kept there, or that they were all kept at Brodhead's house; before they were signed by Brodhead they were kept outside of the safe in a tin box; think they had already been signed by the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors; the $39,300 were exhibited to the committee; the bonds were marked "sold" as fast as I did them up; the $25,000 bonds were marked "sold" before I left that night; when I counted them and took a memorandum, I copied that off on the bond book and marked "sold;" was so directed to do; they were supposed to be sold when done up and ready to be taken away; don't know whether those particular bonds were sold or not; think the $39,300 bonds were taken from the office to Brodhead's house by his father-in-law, Abram A. Deyo, immediately previous to the investigating committee coming there; taken out of the tin box and the box left; don't know why they were removed; Brodhead was taken sick a few days before election.

Cross-Examined—Pursued the same course in reference to the $25,000 bonds as I did respecting other bonds, and received no special instructions about entering these particular bonds.

Jesse Lyon testified that he saw nothing of the $25,000 bonds, whereupon claimants' counsel admitted that were all the members of the committee called to testify they would swear they knew nothing as to the $25,000 bonds being removed from the office.

Charles D. Bruyn—Am and have been an officer of the Ulster County Bank for a number of years; bought bonds of Brodhead; most of the bonds I took were in exchange for other bonds that were falling due; think I took some that I paid him for; should say I took on exchange from $50,000 to $75,000; such bonds that I got of the new issue I got directly from him; took from him August 24, 1871, $22,000 bonds and I sent them to Albany; they were sold at 101 and interest; I credited Brodhead's account at the bank with $22,935.04, which is deducting $11 express charges to Albany. I received no commission; I would have been willing to have sold bonds at not to exceed one per cent. from summer of 1870 to fall of 1871; think the bonds sold at Albany brought two per cent. premium; the transaction was with the Commercial Bank; I understood they bought them for the savings bank.

Cross-Examined—When Brodhead delivered the bonds to me I was behind the bank counter; when Ulster county bonds were first issued I think they sold for from about 85 to 90; in 1869 there was no difficulty in selling a reasonable amount of bonds at par.

The case was then adjourned until 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

TELEGRAPH.

REGULAR DISPATCHES TO DAILY FREEMAN

FOREIGN.

FRANCE.

An Ovation to Thiers.

VERSAILLES, Feb. 25.—When Thiers entered the Assemby to-day he was greeted with a perfect ovation from the members of the Left, in consequence of his letter stating his conviction that a republican is the only form of government for France.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Reports from the Ashantee War.

LONDNN, Feb. 25.—The War Office has received no report of a battle said to have occurred between Sir Garnet Wolseley's army and the Ashantees, but an unofficial though circumstantial dispatch, has reached the Admiralty Office that a battle was fought at Acroomboo January 31st, not Coomassie, as reported. Among the killed are Major Baird and Captain Buckle.

A special dispatch to the Standard says the Ashantees entirely surrounded the British army, but were eventually driven off with great loss. The principal war chief of the Ashantees was killed. The King has taken command in person and it was expected he would renew the attack. February 5th was the date decided upon for the storming of Coomassie by Gen. Wolseley's forces.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Further details of the battle between Sir Garnet Wolseley and the Ashantees say the latter fought desperately, the fight lasting from 6 o'clock in the morning until 7 P. M. Seventeen British officers were killed or wounded. The naval brigade, 445 strong, lost 39 men, the rifle brigade 26, engineers 38. The loss of the native allies is unknown, but was very heavy. The communication of the British forces with the rear is threatened. It is believed that another large force of Ashantees are approaching Coomassie from the southwest.

TEMPERANCE NOTES.

Action of the State Temperance Committee.

ALBANY, Feb. 25.—The State Temperance Committee to-day adopted a preamble and resolutions calling upon the Legislature to pass and Gov. Dix to sign the local prohibition bill, inasmuch as the doctrine had been endorsed by the last Republican State Convention and the last meeting of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars; urging people to support all temperance legislation and particularly a constitutional amendment prohibiting the importation, manufacture or sale of liquors, and extending a greeting to the feminine western temperance crusaders.

THE WESTERN WOMEN WORKERS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Dispatches from the West still chronicle successes for the lady temperance crusaders. At Sturgess, Michigan, every saloon closed to-day noon. The movement was inaugurated in a small way by a single old lady, who went from one saloon to another on two of the streets in the West Division, in which saloons are most numerous, and after politely informing the proprietor or bar-keeper that she was about to pray for him knelt in one corner and silently offered up her supplication.

AN INFLAMMATORY APPEAL.

A German paper in Cincinnati publishes an inflammatory proclamation calling on Germans capable of bearing arms to organize a regiment. It says the times seem to be approaching with giant strides when the laws of civil liberty, liberty of conscience and the domestic hearth need protection. The thousands of German citizens should ever be ready to answer the call of our authorities in defence of land and property. This is interpreted as an attempt to scare the women.

A LITTLE UNPLEASANTNESS.

At Columbus, O., a slight breeze was raised by the rival claims of the Good Templars and the promoters of the present movement. Dio Lewis restored order finally, but perfect harmony don't prevail.

TOO BUSY TO PRAY.

A committee sent to invite the Legislature to assemble for prayer in the rotunda of the Capitol at four o'clock returned with the reply that that body was too busy to attend prayers.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Centennial Legislation Recommended.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The President's message to Congress to-day recommended favorable legislation on the Centennial Exhibition and enclosed the report of the Centennial Commission. The Exhibition, he says, will undoubtedly involve considerable expense above the receipts, but this will be amply compensated for by the substantial benefits which the nation will derive therefrom and the gratification of national pride. The message concludes as follows: "Let us have a complete success of our Centennial exposition, or suppress it in its infancy, acknowledging our inability to give it the international character to which our self-esteem aspires."

METROPOLITAN NEWS.

The Latest Murder.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—This evening policeman John Doyle of the Fifteenth Precinct shot and instantly killed Miss Lawler of 83 South Fifth avenue, with whom he had been keeping company for some time. It is said the officer was insanely jealous of the young lady and to-day, after getting very drunk, went to her residence and engaged in a quarrel, during which he drew a revolver and shot her through the head. The murderer was arrested and locked up.

A RAILROAD COMPANY CENSURED.

The coroner's jury investigating the death of Robert E. Launitz, the artist, fatally injured by the accident in the Harlem Railroad tunnel, rendered a verdict of criminal neglect on the part of the company.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

A Profitable Hoax for a Rumseller.

BUFFALO, Feb. 25.—C. W. Bates of Norwalk, Ohio, aged 24, partner in a dry goods house, mysteriously disappeared from the Park Hotel, Niagara Falls, on the 14th inst. He had a large amount of money. He is supposed to have been victimized in some way.

A hoax perpetrated to-day by the announcement of a praying crusade against a liquor saloon resulted in drawing a large crowd to the saloon named and much profit to its owner, no praying band of ladies appearing.

A RIVER WRECK.

Loss of the Steamer Belfast.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 25.—The steamboat Belfast struck a rock while ascending the falls last night and sunk. She will be a total loss. She was valued at $40,000; insured $22,000. Eight hundred stoves as freight were aboard.

THE ERIE TROUBLE.

Arrests at Port Jervis—Travel Stopped West of that Point.

PORT JERVIS, Feb. 25.—Several arrests were made in Port Jervis for trying to prevent trains going out. All travel is stopped west of Port Jervis.

ALBANY ITEMS.

The Session Laws Contract.

ALBANY, Feb. 25.—Hugh J. Hastings of the New York Commercial Advertiser was to-day awarded the contract to print the session laws.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF ENGINEERS.

Enforced Resignation of the Grand Chief.

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 25.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers to-day adopted by a large majority a resolution requesting Grand Chief Engineer Wilson to resign. He accordingly did so and retired from the hall. The Brotherhood then resolved to keep all proceedings from the press.

THE OBSTINATE INSPECTORS.

Jailed on Susan B.'s Account.

ROCHESTER, Feb. 25.—The Eighth Ward Inspectors of Election in this city were committed to jail this afternoon in default of payment of the fine imposed by Judge Hunt of $25 each and costs, $575 altogether, for the crime of receiving Susan B. Anthony's vote in the Presidential election of 1872. The inspectors are determined not to pay the fines.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Calendar for To-day.

ALBANY, Feb. 25.—Court of Appeals calendar for February 26th: Nos. 289, 117, 29, 110, 35, 33, 75, 120.

THE WEATHER.

To-Day's Probabilities.

For the Middle and Middle Atlantic States rising barometer, northwest winds, clearing or clear weather.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

ALBANY, Feb. 25.

PETITIONS.

Mr. ROBERTSON, for the exemption of mortgages from taxation; Mr. JACOBS, for the passage of the Silent Safety Railroad bill; Mr. CONNELLY, for the preservation of fish in the Wallkill River.

BILLS PASSED.

Amending act altering the system of repairing the highways.

Amending act authorizing the assessment of highway labor upon the Jeffersonville & Monticello Turnpike Road.

GENERAL ORDERS.

In Committee of the Whole, Mr. TOBEY in the chair, the following bills were considered:

Further to amend an act to equalize the state tax among the several counties of this state.

Mr. WOODIN renewed his motion to fill the blank in Section 10 with $3,500, the annual salary for each Assessor. He called attention to the additional duties imposed by the present law on the Assessors, and held that the amount proposed was only a fair compensation.

Mr. WOODIN accepted the amendment of Mr. LOWERY, fixing the salary of the Assessors at $2,500 and $500 for traveling expenses, and the motion to fill the blank at that sum was carried. The bill was then ordered to a third reading.

The Senate then went into executive session, and on coming out adjourned until 11 A. M. to-morrow.

ASSEMBLY.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

In relation to county treasurers.

Mr. VEDDER moved to recommit with instructions to strike out the tenth section, which provides that no Treasurer shall be eligible for re-election until three years after the expiration of his term.

Mr. LINCOLN said the bill in the main had many excellent features, but he very much doubted whether it ought to pass in its present form. He would, therefore, offer an amendment making it take effect on the first of January, 1876. This he offered to compromise between the treasurers and the people. It would be giving notice to those who are to be elected what they may expect, and he trusted that it would prevent the entire defeat of the bill.

Mr. GRIFFIN thought the money might as well remain in the hands of the treasurers as to go to all these banks. He did not see the necessity of giving the Supervisors so much power over the treasurers. The latter were as likely to be trustworthy as the former, and he thought there had been far more defalcations among the banks than among the treasurers.

The ayes and noes were called for on Mr. Lincoln's motion, and it was lost, 26 to 79.

Mr. SLOAN spoke in favor of the motion to strike out the tenth section. The Treasurer of his own county possessed the unlimited confidence of the people, and if the sentiment of the people of the county was taken it would be four to one in favor of retaining him. If this section is retained, the bill was in danger of being lost, and he should regret such a result, as many features of the bill were in his opinion excellent and desirable.

Mr. CALAHAN renewed the amendment he made in Committee of the Whole to exempt the county of Kings, as it would result in serious complications in that county, and in its present form would certainly be unjust. If it was designed to apply the principle to Kings county, it ought to be done by a special bill. He was in favor of the bill as it applied to the rest of the state, but it would not, in the present condition of affairs, apply to Kings county.

Mr. CALAHAN'S motion was lost.

Mr. VEDDER'S motion to recommit with instructions to strike out the enacting clause was also lost, 34 to 51.

The question recurring on the motion of Mr. Miller to recommit with instructions to strike out the enacting clause, it was lost by a viva voce vote.

The bill was then passed by the following vote:

AYES—Messrs. Abeel, Alvord, Barrow, Bassett, Batcheller, Bennett, Berri, Biglin, Blessing, Blumenthal, Braman, Brown, Burritt, Coffee, Carpenter, Cauldwell, Chadwick, Clark, Cleary, Calahan, Comstock, Coughlin, Daly, Davis, Denniston, Dickson, Donahue, Ely, Farrar, Fish, Goss, Gregory, Gurnee, Hammond, Hayes, Hazelton, Hoag, Holden, Johnson, Jones, Kirk, Kshinka, Law, Lawrence, Lincoln, Lynde, McGroarty, McQueen, Morey, Murray, Oakley, O'Callaghan, Patten, Philpot, Prince, Quinn, Ryan, Simon, Sloan, H. Kingston, Thursday Morning, Feb. 26.

Col. Higginson likes enthusiasm and thinks the stump-orator often a "better fellow than the city editor who cuts him up." He prefers to "be choked with gas rather than be smothered with starch." To be sure. We are certain nobody will dispute the gallant Colonel's right to choose his method of suffocation. Yet starch is inodorous, while gas smells so bad.

The literary public is getting into quite a state of mind over the authorship of the Saxe-Holm stories. The publishers themselves are befuddled and beat. They thought they knew, but it turns out that they didn't. This suspense is dreadful; and in order to simplify the search by a unit, we hasten to disavow the authorship for ourselves. We could have written them if we had wanted to, but had no time.

Mrs. Ann Eliza Young, one of Brigham's wives, is upon the lecture platform. She tells an awful story about the polygamous life, and has an idea that if she could make herself heard in Washington, she could influence the powers there to do something towards abating polygamy. Poor thing; how useless such a mission would be she would find on entering a Congress one of whose members runs four wives and holds an honorable seat.

A New York daily of Tuesday, in commenting upon the death of Henry Smith, stated that his favorite amusement was draw-poker; and that the deceased played a game of forty-eight hours' duration a short time before his last illness, of which the illness was the result. We have no wish to cast any aspersion upon the fame of the dead, but if draw-poker is so fascinating and so fatal a game it becomes the Police Department to see that a love for it does not spread among the force.

Senator Schurz has upset all the cunning devices of the inflationists, and the Senate has not a financial rag to its back. One point upon which he let in a flood of wholesome light was that the abundance of money in the west is not due to the issue of $25,000,000 more or less of the legal tender reserve. A new policy is now badly wanted, and Morton, Ferry and Logan must set themselves to the evolution of one without delay. Otherwise Schurz's ideas may infect the Senate to a degree which will take all the balloonism out of it.

If this country was originally discovered by the old Norse sea-kings, what were they seeking here; did they hope to find a nice land south of Iceland, and did they build that old tower in Newport on their new tour through that port? And do the legends make sure that they left imprints of their leg-ends on the sands of New England? If so can Canon Kingsley tell us why Bjarne Grimolfsen omitted to leave his mark on the continent for the benefit of his heirs? And why does the Canon roar over the bones of Columbus? And did the Norsemen find any steam Indians here when they came? We pause.

We really must express a hope that the practice of publishing the finding of post-mortem examinations held upon the bodies of conspicuous deceased people will not extend. If it is desirable in the interest of medical science to dissect in certain cases to find cause of death, very well; but we fail to understand what interest the general public can have in the matter. Besides, the doctors, perhaps inevitably, give us the results of their cutting and carvings in the technical language of their guild, darkening information in that way even if we needed to have it; and we don't.

The Erie Railway has caught the strike epidemic, possibly from the Midland, for a poison virus from a child may infect a giant. No passenger trains were running yesterday west of Hornellsville and no freight trains west of Susquehanna. This trouble is in keeping with the average luck of the Erie. We do not think this minute of any other great trunk line which is so constantly in hot water. We should say that the road appears to prosper but little better under Watson than it did three or four years ago, if the reputations of Fisk and Gould were not in such bad odor with truly good railroad men.

Miss Marietta Flag—we suppose she is a miss—is awfully mad over the sale of her property in payment of taxes which she refused to meet. She calls the Sheriff "an insignificant duplication of Benedict Arnold." This is hard on Arnold, who was a notorious friend of woman. Miss Flag, so to speak, nails herself to the mast on this tax business, and floats defiantly in the very faces of "those horrid men." She declares herself "one of the minute-women of the new Revolution." We stand in sympathetic union with Miss Flag, and assure her many a successful battle has opened less hopefully.

The anti-rum war has reached the home of Andrew Johnson of Tennessee. There the ladies are certain of the support of a great and good man. Andy is a temperance man by instinct and experience. With that far-sighted nose of his he can smell the "critter" afar off, and accurately determine its locality and quality. Andy is too modest and retiring to put himself in the van of the ladies' leonine legions, but as a committee of reference he will be worth his weight in lemon-sugar. The great ex-Everything is not exactly a religious man, yet his heart is full of tenderness and his head is an ocean of tears. He will weep when called upon and make a speech if required. Greenville can't be a very bad place at the worst, and we are confident that the few rumsellers who have managed to eke out a slender living there will only have to be reminded of the insult their trade is to Andy, its one distinguished resident, to send the contents of their demijohns to the home of disembottled spirits.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent, after giving an account of how the Massachusetts delegation presented itself before Gen. Grant to try to induce him to withdraw the nomination of Simmons, goes on to say: "The President informed the delegation that if he had thought the nomination would have provoked so much opposition he should not have made it, but it having now been made, on what he regarded as suitable recommendations, he did not feel at liberty to recall it except upon the request of those recommending it." We quote the above not to question its facts but to call attention to the quality of the Presidential reasoning. If, as Mr. Grant concedes, the nomination ought not to have been made in the face of such opposition as it has met with, could that opposition have been anticipated, then, now that the opposition has shown itself, why should not the nomination be recalled? To this conundrum the President replies that he considered the recommendations good and that he cannot repudiate them at this late hour. Why not? If an anticipated opposition would, in the President's judgment, have proved those recommendations inadequate (and this he concedes) how are they worth any more respect because they are now proved to be erroneous? Is that piece of logic on crutches the sole referee in this business, or are those "recommendations" held above par on account of the miscellaneous usefulness of the men who made them?

Is This a Materialistic Age?

Many thoughtful men and women, honestly and deeply interested in the character and direction of modern opinion, insist that we have fallen upon an age of materialism. Upon this belief they found serious apprehensions concerning the religious future of the current generation. Investigation is so bold and assiduous into every department and field of facts that they who cling to time-honored faiths as the only sure anchorage for a human soul, are pardonably solicitous about the outcome of it all. What the microscope tells as to the composition of the blood and what the spectroscope asserts concerning the metallic structure of the stars are to these good people secrets with which finite man has no business to meddle; and whose possession by him is not unlike the holding of gems stolen from the neck of a murdered queen. It is imagined that the kind of knowledge created and formulated by the constant and universal prying of men into hitherto unexplored mysteries is in some way inimical to the growth of reverence for the Supreme Being and consequently damaging to the influence of those practical systems of salvation and spiritual culture which have been set up. The only rational ground for such a fear as this would be the production on the part of science of a degraded or materialized habit of thought in the minds of men at large. Now, in the few sentences which it is possible for us to devote to to the point at issue, we desire to say that this is not the tendency of recent knowledge. Our grandfathers were saddled and weighed down with the grossest materialism. Those "pious and painefull" old gentlemen supposed the earth to be an inexorable mass of soil, rock and water, unchangeable except by the last mighty and miraculous fire which should finally give them "the new heavens and the new earth" of the apostolic prophecy. That was materialism indeed; heavy enough to oppress more tender spirits than theirs. But we have changed all that. We see now that nothing is at rest; mountains are being taken down here and erected there—seas are altering the coast-lines—slow changes of climate are originating new varieties of fruit and new orders of men—clay, flint and limestone come and go like snow-flakes, though not quite so soon—a lump of granite is but a balance of forces and is not possessed of an identity of its own—all is force, energy, and is definitely related to every solidified fact under Heaven. This is not materialism, it is dynamism; the law of regulated spiritual power. All things are found to be mutually convertible—gravity may become heat, heat may become affinity—affinity may turn into heat again. The man who sees this and really appreciates it is so much nearer to a true notion of how divinity works through and crystallizes into material forms; and so much nearer a worthy apprehension of Christianity. No nation was ever so materialistic and beastly as the Jews under Moses, and none so ignorant of "science." The whole case is not hard to understand; when men please to be wicked, no creed will help them—when they care to be good, every atom of knowledge is of use to them. If the over-zealous defenders of the Bible would disturb themselves less about their pet interpretations and leave its main truths to justify themselves or fall, there would come a time of mighty comfort in the churches, and a valuable saving of breath and printers' ink. This is the most spiritual, the most progressive, the most religious, the most philanthropic age that ever was; and every new fact coaxed down from the stars, dug out of the earth, or cut out of the human body, is a pebble in the pavement of the city of all saints.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the bill to equalize the distribution of currency, the pending motion being that of Buckingham to recommit the bill to the Finance Committee, with the instructions agreed upon, directing the committee to report in favor of increasing the volume of national bank currency to $400,000,000.

The discussion was continued by Merrimon, Sherman and Allison. Morton and Schurz became involved in a personal discussion, in which both were called to order by the Chair for unparliamentary language and wound up by a mutual disclaimer of intention to offend, both speaking in a Pickwickian sense.

The CHAIR laid before the Senate a message of the President in regard to the Centennial Exhibition. Ordered printed and to lay on the table.

The Senate went into executive session. After a short time the doors were reopened and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

The House at half-past one resumed the consideration of the franking bill.

Mr. COBB of Kansas supported the bill, for one reason, that it was the only means of keeping the people informed of the acts of their representatives in Congress. If there was to be no opportunity for this except through reporters for newspapers then the source of power was in the hands of the gentlemen in the gallery and not in the hands of the members themselves.

Mr. WARD of Illinois opposed the bill because the Philadelphia Convention and local Republican conventions had declared against the franking privilege and he had not learned that any considerable body of citizens favored its restoration.

Mr. WILLIAMS of Massachusetts had been a disciple of Horace Greeley for many years and from him had imbibed the spirit of opposition to franking privileges. He had been one of the most fierce workers in its abolition. His later experience on the Postal and other committees had revolutionized his opinions and now he favored the bill under consideration.

Mr. BUTLER of Massachusetts favored the bill in lengthy remarks, in which he paid his compliments to the newspapers in his usual manner.

At the close of Butler's remarks Mr. PACKER of Pennsylvania, who has charge of the bill, demanded the previous question, refusing to admit any amendment except a substitute offered by Hale of New York to repeal the law which abolishes the franking privilege.

The previous question was seconded—112 to 64. The vote on ordering the main question was taken by yeas and nays and resulted in yeas 126, nays 117, the Democrats almost uniformly voting in the negative.

Further action on the bill went over till to-morrow and then at 4.45 o'clock the House took a recess. The evening session is to be for the consideration of the bill to revise the statutes.

—When the late John Milton Earle, of Worcester, Mass., was a member of the Legislature at the same time that he was editor of the Spy, he was in the habit of writing his leaders in the cars on the way to Worcester, at night, frequently penciling his criticisms on public men and measures on the blank margin of the Boston Journal. His penmanship was singularly clear and beautiful, and, although the reception of an entire Journal as the "copy" for a leader was the subject of many jokes in the composition room, the printer who drew the "take" seldom had any difficulty in reading the manuscript.

—The trial of the alleged murderer of Mary E. Lowell is going on in Auburn. In the midst of it a trunk arrived at the depot marked "Mary E. Lowell," and the rumor spread that the supposed victim had returned safe and sound. The owner of the trunk was hunted up, and found to be a namesake.

THE SCHOONMAKER AND COOPER CASE.

Adjourned Hearing—Continuation of the Case.

S. D. Coykendall resumed upon the cross-examination by Mr. Fowler, testified—Am not positive whether Cooper called on me more than once in relation to the $27,000 mortgage; I think he said he had no idea that the $25,000 of bonds had been stolen; he said he would let me know when they wanted me as a witness in the Brodhead reference; Mr. S. and myself examined the ledger from which I took the memorandum, together at the desk; Mr. S. remarked that that might be important evidence, and I said I would take a copy of it, and I did so in lead pencil; Mr. S. says he once asked me for a copy of that memorandum, but I have no recollection of his so doing; any one at any time could have a copy of it; it purported to be an account of certain bonds, certain money paid for certain purposes; whether I or Mr. S. first discovered the particular page I can't say; there were many things upon this particular page in the ledger; it contained items of money paid for services at Albany in procuring the passage of the law and expenses of gentlemen going to New York to see about printing bonds, and also contained an account of bonds sold to Bray and Bruyn, and other items that I can't now distinctly remember; I believe Mr. S. and myself did a large part of the work in examining the Treasurer's books and papers, although every gentleman there took part; I think the committee were engaged four or five days; think a report was made to the Board immediately after the examination was completed; think the bulk of the report was drawn by Mr. S., with some suggestions from myself, and probably from others; Mr. Foland was in charge of the office when the committee were there; believe he was there most of the time; believe the safe was locked during the intermissions; think the keys were delivered to Foland every day; don't remember saying that I could get along there without Foland; remember some words that passed between McKinstry and Cornell, but no altercation; the report presented to the Board by the committee is simply a statement of Brodhead's books; assisted the committee in drawing it; believe I assisted in verifying it; it was a correct abstract of his books; very few if any vouchers were in the office; there were not vouchers to all the items; so far as the report shows I presume there were vouchers; F. J. Hecker was my clerk, and he made most of the entries upon the bond book; I examined the coupons in the aggregate; Mr. Hasbrouck's report shows there was paid by him in 1873, of coupons falling due March 1st, 1870, $140; March 1st, 1871, $238; March 1st, 1872, $665; I presume those represent bona fide cash payments; unless they were he couldn't get credit by the Board of Supervisors on his account; don't think the investigating committee came to the conclusion at one time to report an over-issue of bonds, but they came to the conclusion the whole amount had been sold; I did not say to Foland, "We can get along without you, and we can help ourselves to whatever we want out of this safe;" when we came there I don't remember Tuthill saying that Foland would help us to anything out of the safe, and that I said I didn't want him; don't remember taking anything out of the safe; it was not usual for me to get back there some time before the rest of the committee at the noon recess, and be there alone; the committee dined together, as I recollect, and most of the committee went back together; don't think there was any time I went in there alone; during the investigation Brodhead was sick, and I saw him personally once; met Dr. Eltinge there once; went to Brodhead's at the request of some gentlemen, and I there said Brodhead's deficiency was large, and if he had securities of any kind, that even were his deficiency $300,000, I would furnish the money if securities of anywhere near the value were placed in my hands; I would pay the money over to the county, and keep him in his position; I made that offer to Brodhead in presence of Dr. Eltinge and another person; when I became Treasurer, I refused to take any notes of hand, being advised that I had no legal right to take them, but I made an arrangement by which certain notes were cashed by Cornell, and the money transferred to the credit of the county; I believe Mr. Schoonmaker made the entire examination of the trust fund; can't tell the amount of interest on Ulster county bonded debt in the year 1870; cannot tell whether any of the principal was paid or not; don't remember whether any part of the principal was extinguished March 1st, 1871; the principal of the bonded debt March 1 was $1,421,-500, and the principal debt had increased, I believe, on the first of March, 1872; the amount appropriated by the Board for the payment of taxes on the bonded debt for 1872, and one or two years prior thereto, was $99,505, I believe; there was a certain amount received from Brodhead, and from that fund it was understood that the bonds which were falling due were to be paid, and the accrued interest on the new bond issue was to be paid; the county appropriated the same amount they had for years. There was appropriated a certain amount from the New Bond Account, and transferred to the interest account.

Re-Direct—In the large safe was an iron box about 12 by 16 in front, and 12 inches deep; I believe it was not open except Foland opened and closed it again. The committee had no key to it, to my knowledge. There were before the committee no securities except the county bonds, and these were cancelled and of no value. No money was produced before the committee to be counted. Mr. Webster examined the entries upon the New Bond book, and reported that he found it correct. E. C. Litchfield is in bankruptcy, and E. B. Litchfield is reputed to be insolvent; E. B. lives in Brooklyn. I believe the R. & O. R. R. are insolvent, and not able to pay their debts.

Re-Cross—County bonds uncancelled would be negotiable by delivery; no checks or notes endorsed in blank were produced before the committee, to my recollection. Called upon Brodhead just previous to the committee's commencing work; knew there was a deficiency in his account by common rumor only. The coupons I paid are in the Treasurer's office, I believe; none were destroyed during my term. Don't know that it was reported at a public meeting the Litchfields were worth nine or seven million dollars. I heard gentlemen estimate them worth that amount.

Re-direct—The coupons were cancelled by being punched.

Re-Cross—The Brodhead coupons were examined by the committee, and cancelled after the amount had been determined and allowed by the committee. The coupons were always cancelled, so far as I know.

James R. Foland—During the summer and Fall of 1871 I was clerk in Treasurer's office; was sworn and examined in the Brodhead reference as to the $25,000 in bonds claimed to have been lost or stolen.

It was admitted that the witness testified before Referee Scott, among other things, as follows: "Recollect that Brodhead let me count a lot of bonds, take the numbers, and do them up; think there were $25,000 of them; I counted and tied them up and put them in the safe, as he told me I should; never did anything else with them; never saw them again to my knowledge, or heard anything about them until Brodhead was sick; he then asked me about them; I was not always present when the committee were investigating; the doors were not kept locked; the $39,300 bonds not signed were at Brodhead's house; before the bonds were signed they were all entered in a book, commencing with the $1,000 bonds, each series by itself; there was no record kept; when sold they were marked sold on the book; when I took the bonds I wrote opposite each number "sold;" the entries in the book, where "exchanged" was taken out and "sold" afterwards entered, were entered according to the directions of the Treasurer."

Witness then testified orally—Think I put up the bonds the day before Brodhead was taken sick; next day he went to New York; I put them up about ten o'clock at night; didn't put the bonds in the little iron box; had a key to the safe part of the time; at other times Brodhead had it; Charles Brodhead also had a key to it; never had both keys in my possession; think I kept the key because B. was going to New York the next day; don't recollect whether I opened the safe the next day; never took those $25,000 bonds; opened the safe the morning the committee came there; did not then look to see if the bonds were there; the package was not sealed, but tied up with red tape; there were two blotters kept in pencil in the office, and Brodhead would transfer from the blotters into his regular books; nothing was said to the committee about the bonds being put in the safe; I most emphatically state that I have no knowledge of what became of the $25,000 bonds; think I entered Brodhead's office in July, 1871; where a lot of bonds went together, we simply marked them "sold," without stating the party to whom they went; Charles Bray was charged with $113,600 worth of bonds; Bruyn acted only as agent to send bonds to the Albany Savings Bank; from the bond book I could not pick out the $25,000 which I put in the safe; Charles Brodhead was not sworn before Scott to my knowledge; did not refuse to disclose to Schoonmaker or Cooper anything in relation to the $25,000, or refuse to answer any questions they may have asked me about them; to my recollection they asked me no questions about those bonds.

Cross-Examined—In 1872 was a clerk in the Ulster County Bank; don't recollect Schoonmaker coming in there and asking me about the bonds, and my saying I did not pay any attention to them because I supposed Brodhead had taken them to New York; the last I saw of the old bond book it was in the investigating committee's hands; the old bond book contained the charge of $113,600 bonds against Charles Bray, Cashier; Coykendall and Schoonmaker examined the ledger, which book I suppose virtually was Brodhead's private book; "cash-book" he called it; Chas. Brodhead was taken sick about the time John was taken sick; Charles was confined to his bed; think he continued sick until the committee finished; Brodhead returned home sick the night of the day he went to New York; that was the beginning of his last sickness; he was brought to the office to open the small safe; he didn't succeed; used to go to Brodhead's house while sick; he was delirious, and was asking about the bonds and in order to quiet him I would tell him they were all right; I supposed then that he had taken them to New York; when the committee came there Coykendall allowed that the committee were capable of making the examination for themselves; I took it to mean that they didn't need my assistance; was not present all the while they were examining; on several occasions I found Coykendall in there alone.

Re-Direct Examination—Don't know where I last saw the old bond book, in the safe or on the table any way; had no talk with Brodhead as to what he was going to do with the $25,000 bonds; bonds were generally left unsigned by Brodhead till they were ready for sale; think he signed the $25,000 bonds that night just before I put them up; put them in the safe about 10 P. M.; the word "sold" was written on the bonds by Brodhead's direction.

Re-Cross—Made no entries in the bond book after Brodhead was taken sick.

Anthony Benson testified—Am Secretary of the Rondout Savings Bank, and do some insurance business; been Secretary and Treasurer of R. & O. R. R. Co. as well as a Director; no money was borrowed by the Railroad Co., to my knowledge, on the $27,000 mortgage which Coykendall executed to the Railroad Co.; my connection with the company ended in September, 1871.

Cross-Examined—No arrangement was made to borrow money upon that mortgage to my knowledge. The witness was examined at some length regarding his knowledge of the lands covered by the $27,000 mortgage, and thought that the fair market value of the whole land covered by the mortgage would not exceed $15,000.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Cross-Examination—I remember taking to Coykendall a deed for execution of property to O. M. Allaban; think the deed was prepared by direction of Board of Directors; Allaban was Vice President, I believe; my understanding was that the transfer was made to Allaban so he could handle it and do as he pleased; Coykendall refused to execute in that way; I did not report to any of the directors that he refused to execute, because thereby the company would lose $45,000, nor did I so state to Allaban; I did not represent to Coykendall at the time he executed the mortgage that the property was worth $35,000. The witness was then examined with great particularity as to parcels of land covered by the $27,000 mortgage; the substance being the witness did not consider the land worth more than $15,000.

James R. Foland recalled—Don't recollect that either of the committee asked me if any watchman was kept in the Treasurer's office; never said no bonds were kept there, or that they were all kept at Brodhead's house; before they were signed by Brodhead they were kept outside of the safe in a tin box; think they had already been signed by the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors; the $39,300 were exhibited to the committee; the bonds were marked "sold" as fast as I did them up; the $25,000 bonds were marked "sold" before I left that night; when I counted them and took a memorandum, I copied that off on the bond book and marked "sold;" was so directed to do; they were supposed to be sold when done up and ready to be taken away; don't know whether those particular bonds were sold or not; think the $39,300 bonds were taken from the office to Brodhead's house by his father-in-law, Abram A. Deyo, immediately previous to the investigating committee coming there; taken out of the tin box and the box left; don't know why they were removed; Brodhead was taken sick a few days before election.

Cross-Examined—Pursued the same course in reference to the $25,000 bonds as I did respecting other bonds, and received no special instructions about entering these particular bonds.

Jesse Lyon testified that he saw nothing of the $25,000 bonds, whereupon claimants' counsel admitted that were all the members of the committee called to testify they would swear they knew nothing as to the $25,000 bonds being removed from the office.

Charles D. Bruyn—Am and have been an officer of the Ulster County Bank for a number of years; bought bonds of Brodhead; most of the bonds I took were in exchange for other bonds that were falling due; think I took some that I paid him for; should say I took on exchange from $50,000 to $75,000; such bonds that I got of the new issue I got directly from him; took from him August 24, 1871, $22,000 bonds and I sent them to Albany; they were sold at 101 and interest; I credited Brodhead's account at the bank with $22,935.04, which is deducting $11 express charges to Albany. I received no commission; I would have been willing to have sold bonds at not to exceed one per cent. from summer of 1870 to fall of 1871; think the bonds sold at Albany brought two per cent. premium; the transaction was with the Commercial Bank; I understood they bought them for the savings bank.

Cross-Examined—When Brodhead delivered the bonds to me I was behind the bank counter; when Ulster county bonds were first issued I think they sold for from about 85 to 90; in 1869 there was no difficulty in selling a reasonable amount of bonds at par.

The case was then adjourned until 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

TELEGRAPH.

REGULAR DISPATCHES TO DAILY FREEMAN

FOREIGN.

FRANCE.

An Ovation to Thiers.

VERSAILLES, Feb. 25.—When Thiers entered the Assemby to-day he was greeted with a perfect ovation from the members of the Left, in consequence of his letter stating his conviction that a republican is the only form of government for France.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Reports from the Ashantee War.

LONDNN, Feb. 25.—The War Office has received no report of a battle said to have occurred between Sir Garnet Wolseley's army and the Ashantees, but an unofficial though circumstantial dispatch, has reached the Admiralty Office that a battle was fought at Acroomboo January 31st, not Coomassie, as reported. Among the killed are Major Baird and Captain Buckle.

A special dispatch to the Standard says the Ashantees entirely surrounded the British army, but were eventually driven off with great loss. The principal war chief of the Ashantees was killed. The King has taken command in person and it was expected he would renew the attack. February 5th was the date decided upon for the storming of Coomassie by Gen. Wolseley's forces.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Further details of the battle between Sir Garnet Wolseley and the Ashantees say the latter fought desperately, the fight lasting from 6 o'clock in the morning until 7 P. M. Seventeen British officers were killed or wounded. The naval brigade, 445 strong, lost 39 men, the rifle brigade 26, engineers 38. The loss of the native allies is unknown, but was very heavy. The communication of the British forces with the rear is threatened. It is believed that another large force of Ashantees are approaching Coomassie from the southwest.

TEMPERANCE NOTES.

Action of the State Temperance Committee.

ALBANY, Feb. 25.—The State Temperance Committee to-day adopted a preamble and resolutions calling upon the Legislature to pass and Gov. Dix to sign the local prohibition bill, inasmuch as the doctrine had been endorsed by the last Republican State Convention and the last meeting of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars; urging people to support all temperance legislation and particularly a constitutional amendment prohibiting the importation, manufacture or sale of liquors, and extending a greeting to the feminine western temperance crusaders.

THE WESTERN WOMEN WORKERS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Dispatches from the West still chronicle successes for the lady temperance crusaders. At Sturgess, Michigan, every saloon closed to-day noon. The movement was inaugurated in a small way by a single old lady, who went from one saloon to another on two of the streets in the West Division, in which saloons are most numerous, and after politely informing the proprietor or bar-keeper that she was about to pray for him knelt in one corner and silently offered up her supplication.

AN INFLAMMATORY APPEAL.

A German paper in Cincinnati publishes an inflammatory proclamation calling on Germans capable of bearing arms to organize a regiment. It says the times seem to be approaching with giant strides when the laws of civil liberty, liberty of conscience and the domestic hearth need protection. The thousands of German citizens should ever be ready to answer the call of our authorities in defence of land and property. This is interpreted as an attempt to scare the women.

A LITTLE UNPLEASANTNESS.

At Columbus, O., a slight breeze was raised by the rival claims of the Good Templars and the promoters of the present movement. Dio Lewis restored order finally, but perfect harmony don't prevail.

TOO BUSY TO PRAY.

A committee sent to invite the Legislature to assemble for prayer in the rotunda of the Capitol at four o'clock returned with the reply that that body was too busy to attend prayers.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Centennial Legislation Recommended.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The President's message to Congress to-day recommended favorable legislation on the Centennial Exhibition and enclosed the report of the Centennial Commission. The Exhibition, he says, will undoubtedly involve considerable expense above the receipts, but this will be amply compensated for by the substantial benefits which the nation will derive therefrom and the gratification of national pride. The message concludes as follows: "Let us have a complete success of our Centennial exposition, or suppress it in its infancy, acknowledging our inability to give it the international character to which our self-esteem aspires."

METROPOLITAN NEWS.

The Latest Murder.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—This evening policeman John Doyle of the Fifteenth Precinct shot and instantly killed Miss Lawler of 83 South Fifth avenue, with whom he had been keeping company for some time. It is said the officer was insanely jealous of the young lady and to-day, after getting very drunk, went to her residence and engaged in a quarrel, during which he drew a revolver and shot her through the head. The murderer was arrested and locked up.

A RAILROAD COMPANY CENSURED.

The coroner's jury investigating the death of Robert E. Launitz, the artist, fatally injured by the accident in the Harlem Railroad tunnel, rendered a verdict of criminal neglect on the part of the company.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

A Profitable Hoax for a Rumseller.

BUFFALO, Feb. 25.—C. W. Bates of Norwalk, Ohio, aged 24, partner in a dry goods house, mysteriously disappeared from the Park Hotel, Niagara Falls, on the 14th inst. He had a large amount of money. He is supposed to have been victimized in some way.

A hoax perpetrated to-day by the announcement of a praying crusade against a liquor saloon resulted in drawing a large crowd to the saloon named and much profit to its owner, no praying band of ladies appearing.

A RIVER WRECK.

Loss of the Steamer Belfast.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 25.—The steamboat Belfast struck a rock while ascending the falls last night and sunk. She will be a total loss. She was valued at $40,000; insured $22,000. Eight hundred stoves as freight were aboard.

THE ERIE TROUBLE.

Arrests at Port Jervis—Travel Stopped West of that Point.

PORT JERVIS, Feb. 25.—Several arrests were made in Port Jervis for trying to prevent trains going out. All travel is stopped west of Port Jervis.

ALBANY ITEMS.

The Session Laws Contract.

ALBANY, Feb. 25.—Hugh J. Hastings of the New York Commercial Advertiser was to-day awarded the contract to print the session laws.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF ENGINEERS.

Enforced Resignation of the Grand Chief.

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 25.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers to-day adopted by a large majority a resolution requesting Grand Chief Engineer Wilson to resign. He accordingly did so and retired from the hall. The Brotherhood then resolved to keep all proceedings from the press.

THE OBSTINATE INSPECTORS.

Jailed on Susan B.'s Account.

ROCHESTER, Feb. 25.—The Eighth Ward Inspectors of Election in this city were committed to jail this afternoon in default of payment of the fine imposed by Judge Hunt of $25 each and costs, $575 altogether, for the crime of receiving Susan B. Anthony's vote in the Presidential election of 1872. The inspectors are determined not to pay the fines.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Calendar for To-day.

ALBANY, Feb. 25.—Court of Appeals calendar for February 26th: Nos. 289, 117, 29, 110, 35, 33, 75, 120.

THE WEATHER.

To-Day's Probabilities.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

ALBANY, Feb. 25.

PETITIONS.

Mr. ROBERTSON, for the exemption of mortgages from taxation; Mr. JACOBS, for the passage of the Silent Safety Railroad bill; Mr. CONNELLY, for the preservation of fish in the Wallkill River.

BILLS PASSED.

Amending act altering the system of repairing the highways.

Amending act authorizing the assessment of highway labor upon the Jeffersonville & Monticello Turnpike Road.

GENERAL ORDERS.

In Committee of the Whole, Mr. TOBEY in the chair, the following bills were considered:

Further to amend an act to equalize the state tax among the several counties of this state.

Mr. WOODIN renewed his motion to fill the blank in Section 10 with $3,500, the annual salary for each Assessor. He called attention to the additional duties imposed by the present law on the Assessors, and held that the amount proposed was only a fair compensation.

Mr. WOODIN accepted the amendment of Mr. LOWERY, fixing the salary of the Assessors at $2,500 and $500 for traveling expenses, and the motion to fill the blank at that sum was carried. The bill was then ordered to a third reading.

The Senate then went into executive session, and on coming out adjourned until 11 A. M. to-morrow.

ASSEMBLY.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

In relation to county treasurers.

Mr. VEDDER moved to recommit with instructions to strike out the tenth section, which provides that no Treasurer shall be eligible for re-election until three years after the expiration of his term.

Mr. LINCOLN said the bill in the main had many excellent features, but he very much doubted whether it ought to pass in its present form. He would, therefore, offer an amendment making it take effect on the first of January, 1876. This he offered to compromise between the treasurers and the people. It would be giving notice to those who are to be elected what they may expect, and he trusted that it would prevent the entire defeat of the bill.

Mr. GRIFFIN thought the money might as well remain in the hands of the treasurers as to go to all these banks. He did not see the necessity of giving the Supervisors so much power over the treasurers. The latter were as likely to be trustworthy as the former, and he thought there had been far more defalcations among the banks than among the treasurers.

The ayes and noes were called for on Mr. Lincoln's motion, and it was lost, 26 to 79.

Mr. SLOAN spoke in favor of the motion to strike out the tenth section. The Treasurer of his own county possessed the unlimited confidence of the people, and if the sentiment of the people of the county was taken it would be four to one in favor of retaining him. If this section is retained, the bill was in danger of being lost, and he should regret such a result, as many features of the bill were in his opinion excellent and desirable.

Mr. CALAHAN renewed the amendment he made in Committee of the Whole to exempt the county of Kings, as it would result in serious complications in that county, and in its present form would certainly be unjust. If it was designed to apply the principle to Kings county, it ought to be done by a special bill. He was in favor of the bill as it applied to the rest of the state, but it would not, in the present condition of affairs, apply to Kings county.

Mr. CALAHAN'S motion was lost.

Mr. VEDDER'S motion to recommit with instructions to strike out the enacting clause was also lost, 34 to 51.

The question recurring on the motion of Mr. Miller to recommit with instructions to strike out the enacting clause, it was lost by a viva voce vote.

The bill was then passed by the following vote:

AYES—Messrs. Abeel, Alvord, Barrow, Bassett, Batcheller, Bennett, Berri, Biglin, Blessing, Blumenthal, Braman, Brown, Burritt, Coffee, Carpenter, Cauldwell, Chadwick, Clark, Cleary, Calahan, Comstock, Coughlin, Daly, Davis, Denniston, Dickson, Donahue, Ely, Farrar, Fish, Goss, Gregory, Gurnee, Hammond, Hayes, Hazelton, Hoag, Holden, Johnson, Jones, Kirk, Kshinka, Law, Lawrence, Lincoln, Lynde, McGroarty, McQueen, Morey, Murray, Oakley, O'Callaghan, Patten, Philpot, Prince, Quinn, Ryan, Simon, Sloan, H. Smith, Snyder, Speaker, Stover, Sullivan, Sunderlin, Taylor, Thorp, Townsend, Waehner, Wagstaff, Weed, Wight, Winfield, Worth—74.

NAYS—Messrs. Alberger, Beecher, Eastman, Foote, Griffin, Hanrahan, Hardy, Hiller, Hussey, Knapp, Landfield, Mackin, Melvin, W. Miller, Nice, Parry, Persons, Petty, Phillips, S. G. Pope, Scherman, Schifferdecker, Sherwood, J. W. Smith, Spencer, Stephens, Vedder, West—28.

CITY NOTES.

—No corner loafers on Wednesday, thanks to "the pitiless pelting of the storm."

—The wavy and very blonde hair is now called "the high fantastic tow."

—We are indebted to Hon. John D. Winfield and Hon. Dewitt C. Griffin for Public Documents.

—The auction sale of city lots by Morris Frank, which was to take place yesterday, was postponed on account of the weather.

—It is impossible to have the last word with Knapp, the Garden street druggist, for he always has a retort.

—Vice Admiral Jansen Anderson of the Mary Powell has leased and will occupy, after the 1st of April, the residence of George North, Jr., on Chestnut street.

—Ship-carpenters are at work getting out timber for the repairing of the towing steamers Herald and Oswego of Cornell's line, now lying at the foot of Canal street.

—The lecture of Rev. G. C. Esray at the Second M. E. Church and that of Rev. W. H. Mickle at Ponckhockie were postponed on account of the storm, the former for two weeks, and the latter till Friday evening.

—A number of stone teams became stalled on Wall street near North Front street, Tuesday and made the place extremely lively. A crowd of men went out to give a lift, and as they lifted up their voices in unison with the blasphemy of the drivers, in order to urge on the teams, it was a time of more excitement than pleasure.

—By mistake we made Treasurer Hasbrouck testify in the Schoonmaker and Cooper case in Wednesday's Freeman, that all the new bonds of the $514,000 issue have been paid with, certain exceptions. It should have been "all the interest coupons of the $514,000 issue have been paid," with the exception, stated.

Citizens' Convention, Third Ward.

At a citizens' meeting held in the Third Ward on Feb. 19th, the following business was transacted: David S. Manchester was nominated for Alderman. Delegates to Citizens' Convention: James Cramer, Edward Tomkins, William Still, John R. Tammany, George Messenger. Delegates to Supervisors' Convention: D. B. Abbey, A. M. Lowe.

Runaway Accident.

While Mr. Harvey W. Otis was driving up Hasbrouck avenue yesterday morning, his horse took fright at the down train on the N. Y., K. & S. Railroad. Mr. Otis was thrown out of his wagon and quite seriously injured about the head and face.

Guess Not.

A young gentleman was heard loudly boasting in the County Clerk's office the other day that he was the man who made the comments on sermons in The Freeman. This chap has no connection with The Freeman, and yet it did seem to do him good to brag and blow.

"O wad some power the giftie gie us
To see oursels as others see us !"

An Old Amusement Revived.

The uptown young folks are into the "surprise sheet and pillow case masquerading parties" again, and will give this choice kind of entertainment at odd intervals until warm weather comes. We don't understand why the "surprise" is added to the name of these entertainments, though the sheet and pillow part is both a cheap and comfortable outfit. Almost any one can spare a sheet for the night, and then they can trip the fantastic toe, or otherwise, in the most eccentric manner without creating unnecessary remarks in regard to want of dignity, grace, etc. It is said the uptown girls as a general thing look extremely well in night caps (of course we mean pillow-case caps), so these entertainments, quite likely, will become very popular.

A Popular Resort.

There seems to be a great desire now-a-days among young ladies to visit the jail. Bevies of girls can be seen coaxing the jailer for admittance within the grim walls almost every day. Of course the jailer is too gallant to refuse, so he unbars the heavy doors and ushers them in. Then one can almost hear the heart-beats of those girls; they are so scared, and oh, dear, what a horrid place! And they step so lightly and shudder at the squeak of a door, or turn pale when a prisoner looks at them. Said a young lady the other day, in whispering tones, pointing to a couple of chaps who had been arrested for not paying their debts, "What bloodthirsty-looking men those are! Are they murderers or thieves, which?" The woman accused of strangling her child at Phoenicia is scanned with inquisitive eyes, and there are few of the visitors who go into the jail who cannot find something terrible-looking in her appearance.

Corneil Winne as an Ice Gatherer.

On Monday morning Corneil Winne went with a four-horse team and a wagon from his hotel at Boiceville to Isaac Longyear's pond, for a load of ice, intending to store it with that necessary adjunct to cooling drinks for the refreshment of his guests during the coming summer. The first load was secured and on driving on the pond for the second, Corneil noticed the ice on the pond gave signs of being too heavily tasked to bear the weight of his four horses and wagon, so he had the leaders of the team removed. With the judgment of the most innocent native of the greenest isle of the sea who ever landed on the shores of this land of the free and home of the brave, immediately after taking off the leaders Corneil and his merry men loaded the wagon with the crystal cakes, and just as that job was finished they had a bigger one on hand, for the ice gave away and let horses, wagon and men in the pond, and it was with exceeding difficulty they were got out. It was a cold souse, and when everything was safely landed it is said the time made by Corneil between that pond and a certain barrel that has a spigget in it, in his cellar has not only never been surpassed but never equalled, and the double-jointed expletives to which he gave utterance as he tore along are yet breaking their necks over each other as they tumble around over the frozen ground of the intervening fields.

A SAD HISTORY.

Suicide of a Young Married Woman in Hardenbergh.

Coroner Charles Stephan of this city received a telegram on Monday night summoning him to the residence of Demetrius D. De Silva in the town of Hardenbergh to hold an inquest on the body of Sara Jane De Silva, wife of Demetrius D. De Silva, who had committed suicide on Monday about 11 A. M. by shooting herself through the left breast with a seven shooting revolver. The coroner reached the late residence of the deceased at 3 P. M. on Tuesday and immediately impannelled a jury, the following being the proceedings thereof:

Demetrius D. De Silva being sworn said: I reside in Hardenbergh; am a farmer; on the morning of Feb. 23d deceased was getting breakfast ready and I was in the barn with Moses Kettle; noticed her looking very cross and asked her what was the matter, when she commenced crying and said, "You're always away from home and abusing me;" told her I was not gone from home more than necessary, and she then went to the barn; I sent a boy to the barn to call her; when he came back he told me she was fixing a pole and tying straps to it; went to the barn and saw her fixing a strap to a pole and asked her, "Sarah, what makes you act so? The neighbors are coming to the house;" left the barn and she followed me; she took her baby and went into the next room, and coming back she said she wished she was out of the world, and commenced to cry; about 10 A. M. I got ready and started for the woods to mark logs; deceased was then washing her feet in the kitchen, and she said to me, "I wish you would not go away;" went and marked some logs and coming back toward the house I heard Whitman Abbey call out, "Sarah Jane has killed herself;" upon entering the house I found her lying in the kitchen upon the floor on her back, with a revolver lying at her right side; there were some school children in the room with her; she was then dead, and blood was on her dress at the left breast.

Robert D. Close being sworn said: I am a brother of deceased and reside in the town of Hardenbergh; saw deceased alive last on Sunday afternoon; was telling her I thought of going to Stamford the next summer to work, when she remarked she did not like to have me going away from home so far; she then asked me if sometimes I didn't get tired of life, and I told her "No;" she then said she was tired of living; saw nothing wrong about the house to cause her dejection.

William J. De Silva, Jr., being sworn said: Am a brother to husband of deceased; have for the past three months resided in their house; am unmarried; never saw deceased dejected nor abused by anybody; saw deceased alive last on Sunday; on Monday morning I was at my father's house at Middletown; left my father's house a little after 11 A. M., Feb. 23d, to come to house of deceased; when near the house saw a little boy going toward the house; he was crying; I went to the house and entering the front door, saw the kitchen open and deceased lying on the floor; thought she had fainted and got some water to sprinkle on her face, and raising her head noticed a hole in the breast of her dress and some blood also; saw a pistol lying at her side; her heart was still beating; spoke to deceased, but she did not answer; then went to the door and called for help; there was nobody in the room, nor in the kitchen; the babe was in the crib asleep.

O. M. Allaban being sworn said: I am a practicing physician residing in Margaretville. I have examined the body of Sarah Jane De Silva and find a gun-shot or pistol wound, the ball entering about two inches to the left of the median line, just below her left breast, and passing upward and outward in the direction of the heart and large arteries, without doubt producing death.

VERDICT.

That the said Sarah Jane De Silva came to her death by a pistol shot wound in her breast, and that she came to her death by her own hands and not otherwise.

The following is a copy of a letter found in the house of deceased, and in her own handwriting:

UNCLE BEN:—The reason why I kill myself Demetrius misuses me so I don't want to live. Look after my children that they don't get misused. SARAH.

The woman who thus, by her own hand, ended her life was the wife of a farmer in comfortable circumstances, and only about twenty-six years of age, very prepossessing in appearance and the mother of a young family. By some of her neighbors, who are acquainted with the story of her life, it is supposed she inherited insanity from her father, who was, many years ago, a wealthy and somewhat noted gentleman in Hardenbergh, Sands by name, with the title of Colonel prefixed. Colonel Sands was a widower, and he had a young woman named Delamater for a housekeeper. The woman Delamater, while living as the Colonel's housekeeper, became enciente without being married, and as events afterward proved, Colonel Sands paid a large sum of money to a young man in the neighborhood to run away for the purpose of causing people to suppose he was the father of Miss Delamater's expected baby. Before Miss Delamater became a mother, Colonel Sands, then a man of more than fifty years, married a young woman, when the young man whom he had paid to run away returned and told the story of the fraud. The denouement so chagrined the Colonel that he was noticed at times to act strangely, and he eventually ended his life by cutting a hole through the ice on the Delaware River and drowning himself therein.

Mrs. De Silva, who has so lately committed suicide, is said to be the daughter of the above mentioned Miss Delamater and Colonel Sands.

Town Bonds in Aid of Railroad---A Decision of Importance in this Locality.

The Court of Appeals of this state has very recently rendered a decision in the case of Jenkins vs. the Town of Duanesburgh, relative to the validity of the town bonds in aid of railroads, which settles some important questions pertaining to the issue of said bonds by the towns in this locality. The points passed upon are stated by the Albany correspondent of the Monticello Republican as follows:

First, that the law under which the bonds were issued is constitutional. This is perhaps the controlling question. Second, that the exchange by the commissioners of the bonds of the town for the stock of the railroad was valid and legitimate. Third, that a legalizing act is valid. Fourth, that railroads are public institutions in the same sense that highways are, and come within the right of eminent domain. Fifth, that it being competent for the Legislature to authorize a tax upon the people in aid of such improvements, it follows as an incident to such power that the town through its proper officers can borrow money on its credit, and issue bonds therefor to be paid by future taxation.

The Counsel Fees Case.

The trial on Wednesday was more interesting than any day so far during the present session. Mr. Coykendall was subjected to a rigorous cross-examination concerning his operations with the committee who investigated Brodhead's accounts, and also regarding his interview with Mr. Brodhead. While Mr. Foland was on the stand a number of spectators came in the room, expecting to hear some great revelations. So far this week the case has been pushed by the defense with considerable speed, and if the court continues in session the remainder of the week it is quite likely the case will be closed.

Temperance Prayer Meeting.

A "Temperance Prayer Meeting" will be held in the Second M. E. Cchurch this evening. All friends of the religious temperance work in Kingston are invited to participate.

Citizens' City Convention.

The Citizens' City Convention was held at the Grand Central Hotel last evening, and was called to order by Mr. Enoch Carter.

Mr. Stephen Schoonmaker was chosen Chairman, John Steele Secretary, and G. J. Freileweh Sergeant-at-Arms.

On motion Mr. James G. Lindsley was chosen as the candidate for Mayor.

On motion a formal ballot was taken for Justice of the Peace, with the following result;

Josiah Dubois, Jr.	32
Henry Kreiger	10
James O'Brien	1

On motion an informal ballot was taken for Assessor in the First Department, which resulted as follows:

David Gill	26
Theodore F. Spore	12
Wm. E. Houghtaling	7

Before the formal ballot was taken Mr. P. Freeman Hasbrouck remarked that a citizens' meeting had been held on Monday evening at the Court House, and Theodore F. Spore chosen as Assessor for the First Department, and he was of the opinion that as this was also a Citizens' Convention his nomination should be ratified.

A formal ballot was then taken, which resulted as follows:

David Gill	31
Theodore F. Spore	13
Blank	1

On motion David Gill's nomination was made unanimous.

On motion Daniel B. Stow was chosen as the candidate for Assessor in the Second Department by acclamation.

On motion an informal ballot was taken for Constables in the Western Department, with the following result:

Lewis B. Smith,	28
James O'Brien,	16
Peter Kleiglein,	17
Wm. S. Munson,	11
Peter Carey	10

On motion a formal ballot was taken, with the following result:

Lewis B. Smith,	27
Peter Kleiglein,	22
Wm. S. Munson,	16
James O'Brien,	9

The nomination of Lewis B. Smith and Peter Kleiglein was made unanimous.

On motion an informal ballot was taken for Constables in the Eastern Department, with the following result:

Robert G. Tammany,	24
John Hetzel,	22
James Ryan,	12
Peter Cloonan,	10

On motion a formal ballot was taken, which resulted as follows:

Robert G. Tammany,	28
John Hetzel,	24
James Ryan,	10
Peter Cloonan,	2

On motion a formal ballot was taken for City Sealer, with the following result:

M. J. Ward,	16
John B. Tubby,	13
J B. Snelling,	5
Joshua Demby,	1
Jeremiah Finch,	7

The nomination of M. J. Ward was made unanimous.

The following City Committee was appointed: P. F. Hasbrouck, Peter Plough, William Still, E. Zang, M. J. Barry, D. C. McMillan, J. D. Derrenbacher, James Fields, Peter Meister.

On motion adjourned.

That New Democratic Paper.

The Daily Freeman says:—"We learn that the project of a new Democratic weekly in this city is progressing, an active committee of leading Democrats being engaged in raising the necessary funds."

We apprehend that the Freeman has made a mistake in this matter. A committee has been appointed to see what may be done towards the publication of a Democratic daily paper—the course of the Freeman being so offensive to Democrats that another daily paper is deemed to be a necessity. This matter has been under consideration for some time, and it is not impossible that it will take an effective shape at an early day. The Freeman may not be as enterprising in spreading this item as it has been in giving currency to the other, which, so far as we can ascertain, has not a particle of foundation.—Kingston Argus.

The project to which the Argus alludes was at first to start a new weekly Democratic paper. It has since, we learn, taken the shape of a daily. So far as The Freeman is concerned it wishes it success. Inasmuch as the Argus man knew nothing of either project until after he had read the item in The Freeman and then flew around town like a hen with her head cut off to find out something, thus pretending to know that it has been under consideration for some time, is extremely amusing. And to pretend that it springs from the course of The Freeman is still more amusing. The Freeman has never pretended to be a Democratic paper; it has never asked for Democratic support, and it has never had it. The Argus, however, has never omitted an opportunity to beg such support, it has been perfectly gorged with it; and if a new Democratic weekly or a Democratic daily is started, the probabilities are very strong that the Argus will no longer have such support. When a Democratic organ is obliged to admit that leading men of its own party have been considering, without consulting its editor, a project to start another Democratic paper, it admits what all Ulster county politicians know, that it is, itself, so offensive to the men of its own party, whom it assumes to lead, and to whom it constantly appeals for support, that a new Democratic paper is a necessity.

Row at Higginsville.

Several colored gentlemen who hail from Lapala came to the upper part of the city Tuesday night, and becoming highly exhilarated from excessive potations of Higginsville stimulant, walked into Sutton's hotel in order to have a first-class row. Two of them, Levi Brodhead and Anthony Sampson, pulled off their coats and with a flourish of fists said they wanted to lick some one. After a great deal of blasphemy, Lapala howling and smashing of glasses, Brodhead struck a lame man, Edward Clearwater in the head, cutting him quite badly. Sampson then pulled out a razor and was just going for the scalp of some one, when officer Serrine appeared on the scene and soon had the two gentlemen in limbo.—Brodhead refused to go to jail and had to be knocked down before he could be made to understand the supreme majesty of the law.

The colored chaps were taken before the Recorder on Wednesday; they were fined $20 each, or three months in the Albany penitentiary.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

Town of Hurley.

For Supervisor, J. S. Everett; Town Clerk, Charles Van Steenburgh; Assessor, Benjamin Everett; Justice of the Peace, Ten Eyck DeWitt; Commissioner of Highways, Garret Newkirk; Collector, Leander Temple; Overseers of the Poor, Cornelius Hogan, Newkirk Dumond; Constables, Levi Myer, D. J. Elmendorf, James A. Martin, John P. Elmendorf, James P. D. Ellsworth; Inspectors of Election, District No. 1, Alexander Bogart, W. W. Lockwood; District No. 2, Jacob Rosa, John Crispell.

In the town of Shandaken J. H. Risely has been nominated for Supervisor.

Democratic Supervisors' Convention, Third Department.

At the Democratic Supervisors' Convention for the Third Department, held on Friday last, no regular nomination was made. Yesterday afternoon another convention was held at Seba Tiencken's and Jefferson McCausland and Luke Noone were nominated.

Loading an Ice Barge.

Mr. John Wolfer has an ice barge at the breakwater at the mouth of the creek, which he is lading with ice eight inches in thickness, taken from the river.

Answers to Puzzles.

We have received the following answers to the puzzles published in Wednesday's paper:

In answer to the ferry puzzle one of our bright little girls, who calls herself "Mollie," writes to us: "He takes the goat over first, comes back and takes the cabbage over, brings the goat back, leaves it, takes the wolf over, comes back and takes the goat." This is correct, and if we were awarding prizes for answers, which we are not, "Mollie" should have the first one in this class.

"G. Z." answers the fowl problem thusly: "Three geese, fifteen ducks, two sparrows." Kerect. Wm. Quentel also answers the puzzle correctly.

"C. D." says: "Miss E. C. S., I believe, means to say that she met all those wives, cats and kittens as she was going to St. Ives, but if she don't she has not met any going to St. Ives, as the wives, cats and kittens were coming from and not going to St. Ives."

"J. G." is evidently posted on the sparking business, for he (or she) says, in answer to the "true love" puzzle: "Fifty-six years old. That young man must have a funny idea sparking such an old one."

"G. Z." also answers the same puzzle. Can't these two youth hold a conference and compromise the difference in their calculations, somehow? Here's his guess: "Twenty-one years."

The German teacher of the First Lutheran school gives this answer to the goat, wolf and cabbage puzzle of t'other German teacher: The ferryman takes the goat over first, then he comes back and takes the cabbage, and returning takes the goat back again; then he takes the wolf across, after which he returns and brings over the goat, thus getting them all across without leaving either the wolf alone with the goat, or the goat with the cabbage.

Another person furnishes what may be called a shorthand method: Feed the cabbage to the goat, then let the wolf eat the goat, and then carry the wolf over.

And last of all comes Brooks, who gives a correct answer to the ferry problem, same as the foregoing. All right, "Brooksie, old boy."

The Persecution of Mr. Brodhead.

A very good text for a screed upon the "persecution of John C. Brodhead," which we have heard so much about, can be found in the testimony of Wednesday. Mr. Coykendall, it will be seen, swears he offered to carry $300,000 to enable Brodhead to meet his deficiency if he could furnish securities of that amount. If Mr. Brodhead's difficulty, as has been contended by his apologists, arose because of his inability to turn his assets into money, here certainly was a good opportunity for him to meet his obligations. As his friends have argued that it was because he was in a very tight spot that he was obliged to sell his railroad bonds, his refusal to accept the relief offered to him is very good proof he hadn't a sufficient amount of securities.

A Card.

KINGSTON, Feb. 21, 1874.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY FREEMAN—SIR:—In your issue of Tuesday among your local items you refer to a "free fight" having taken place at my saloon in John street on Saturday evening last, there "being a great cry for pistols," &c.; further the fight took place at midnight and that as I did not close my saloon until after that hour you would respectfully request the Board of Aldermen "to look after this gentleman." In answer to the above I beg permission to say: First, that there was no fight in my saloon on the night in question. Second, that my saloon was closed (as it is every night) before twelve o'clock. There were parties in my saloon on Saturday evening who wanted to fight, but on being told to leave they promptly adjourned to the street, where the fight of which you speak took place. I trust that in justice to me and the public you will insert this in your valuable journal. Respectfully Yours,

JOHN P. TOTTER.

Band of Hope.

An entertainment will be given by the Band of Hope connected with the Wurts Street Baptist Sunday School at the church, on Friday evening, Feb. 27th, at 7½ o'clock. The exercises will consist of addresses, dialogues, and singing. Admission tickets 15 cents—may be secured at Wm. Winter's, John H. Allen's and at the door.

Funeral Notice.

The members of Minnehaha Division No. 83, S. of T., are hereby requested to meet at their rooms this day, Feb. 26, 1874, at 1 P. M. sharp, for the purpose of attending the funeral of our deceased brother, Alfred A. Treat, at the Rondout M. E. Church, 2½ o'clock.

By order of the W. P.

H. C. VAN AKEN, Recording Secretary.

Citizens' Department Convention.

The delegates to the Citizens' Supervisors' Convention of the Third Department are requested to meet in convention at Peter Frickle's this (Thursday) evening at 7½ o'clock.

By Order.

The Hampton Singers.

The sale of reserved seats and tickets for the Hampton Singers' Concert will begin on the morning after the Thomas Concert, March 3d. For the accommodarion of parties out of town, Mr. Crane announces that orders for seats and tickets by mail will receive prompt attention. The programme to be offered by our "culled bredern and sistern" is a new and most excellent one.

The Car Accommodations.

The item yesterday concerning the horse car arrangements for the Thomas Concert should have stated that Superintendent Dumont's proposition embraced carrying the people both to and from the concert. The entire force of the road will be put in requisition if necessary, and we hope the condition of Andrew's diagram by Saturday will indicate that all Rondout's "gwine up"—which reminds us to say that Mr. Dumont also kindly offers the same accommodations for the evening of "The Hampton Singers," concert, March 9th.

A. Sahler H. & L. Co. No. 1, Attention!

All members of A. Sahler H. & L. Co. No. 1 are requested to meet at their rooms on Friday evening, 27th inst. at 7 o'clook sharp.

HENRY E. MCKENZIE, Foreman.

Our shop will be closed hereafter on Sundays. MERRITT BROTHERS, Butchers.

CITY NOTES.

—No corner loafers on Wednesday, thanks to "the pitiless pelting of the storm."

—The wavy and very blonde hair is now called "the high fantastic tow."

—We are indebted to Hon. John D. Winfield and Hon. Dewitt C. Griffin for Public Documents.

—The auction sale of city lots by Morris Frank, which was to take place yesterday, was postponed on account of the weather.

—It is impossible to have the last word with Knapp, the Garden street druggist, for he always has a retort.

—Vice Admiral Jansen Anderson of the Mary Powell has leased and will occupy, after the 1st of April, the residence of George North, Jr., on Chestnut street.

—Ship-carpenters are at work getting out timber for the repairing of the towing steamers Herald and Oswego of Cornell's line, now lying at the foot of Canal street.

—The lecture of Rev. G. C. Esray at the Second M. E. Church and that of Rev. W. H. Mickle at Ponckhockie were postponed on account of the storm, the former for two weeks, and the latter till Friday evening.

—A number of stone teams became stalled on Wall street near North Front street, Tuesday and made the place extremely lively. A crowd of men went out to give a lift, and as they lifted up their voices in unison with the blasphemy of the drivers, in order to urge on the teams, it was a time of more excitement than pleasure.

—By mistake we made Treasurer Hasbrouck testify in the Schoonmaker and Cooper case in Wednesday's Freeman, that all the new bonds of the $514,000 issue have been paid with, certain exceptions. It should have been "all the interest coupons of the $514,000 issue have been paid," with the exception, stated.

Citizens' Convention, Third Ward.

At a citizens' meeting held in the Third Ward on Feb. 19th, the following business was transacted: David S. Manchester was nominated for Alderman. Delegates to Citizens' Convention: James Cramer, Edward Tomkins, William Still, John R. Tammany, George Messenger. Delegates to Supervisors' Convention: D. B. Abbey, A. M. Lowe.

Runaway Accident.

While Mr. Harvey W. Otis was driving up Hasbrouck avenue yesterday morning, his horse took fright at the down train on the N. Y., K. & S. Railroad. Mr. Otis was thrown out of his wagon and quite seriously injured about the head and face.

Guess Not.

A young gentleman was heard loudly boasting in the County Clerk's office the other day that he was the man who made the comments on sermons in The Freeman. This chap has no connection with The Freeman, and yet it did seem to do him good to brag and blow.

"O wad some power the giftie gie us
To see oursels as others see us!"

An Old Amusement Revived.

The uptown young folks are into the "surprise sheet and pillow case masquerading parties" again, and will give this choice kind of entertainment at odd intervals until warm weather comes. We don't understand why the "surprise" is added to the name of these entertainments, though the sheet and pillow part is both a cheap and comfortable outfit. Almost any one can spare a sheet for the night, and then they can trip the fantastic toe, or otherwise, in the most eccentric manner without creating unnecessary remarks in regard to want of dignity, grace, etc. It is said the uptown girls as a general thing look extremely well in night caps (of course we mean pillow-case caps), so these entertainments, quite likely, will become very popular.

A Popular Resort.

There seems to be a great desire now-a-days among young ladies to visit the jail. Bevies of girls can be seen coaxing the jailer for admittance within the grim walls almost every day. Of course the jailer is too gallant to refuse, so he unbars the heavy doors and ushers them in. Then one can almost hear the heart-beats of those girls; they are so scared, and oh, dear, what a horrid place! And they step so lightly and shudder at the squeak of a door, or turn pale when a prisoner looks at them. Said a young lady the other day, in whispering tones, pointing to a couple of chaps who had been arrested for not paying their debts, "What bloodthirsty-looking men those are! Are they murderers or thieves, which?" The woman accused of strangling her child at Phoenicia is scanned with inquisitive eyes, and there are few of the visitors who go into the jail who cannot find something terrible-looking in her appearance.

Corneil Winne as an Ice Gatherer.

On Monday morning Corneil Winne went with a four-horse team and a wagon from his hotel at Boiceville to Isaac Longyear's pond, for a load of ice, intending to store it with that necessary adjunct to cooling drinks for the refreshment of his guests during the coming summer. The first load was secured and on driving on the pond for the second, Corneil noticed the ice on the pond gave signs of being too heavily tasked to bear the weight of his four horses and wagon, so he had the leaders of the team removed. With the judgment of the most innocent native of the greenest isle of the sea who ever landed on the shores of this land of the free and home of the brave, immediately after taking off the leaders Corneil and his merry men loaded the wagon with the crystal cakes, and just as that job was finished they had a bigger one on hand, for the ice gave away and let horses, wagon and men in the pond, and it was with exceeding difficulty they were got out. It was a cold souse, and when everything was safely landed it is said the time made by Corneil between that pond and a certain barrel that has a spigget in it, in his cellar has not only never been surpassed but never equalled, and the double-jointed expletives to which he gave utterance as he tore along are yet breaking their necks over each other as they tumble around over the frozen ground of the intervening fields.

A SAD HISTORY.

Suicide of a Young Married Woman in Hardenbergh.

Coroner Charles Stephan of this city received a telegram on Monday night summoning him to the residence of Demetrius D. De Silva in the town of Hardenbergh to hold an inquest on the body of Sara Jane De Silva, wife of Demetrius D. De Silva, who had committed suicide on Monday about 11 A. M. by shooting herself through the left breast with a seven shooting revolver. The coroner reached the late residence of the deceased at 3 P. M. on Tuesday and immediately impannelled a jury, the following being the proceedings thereof:

Demetrius D. De Silva being sworn said: I reside in Hardenbergh; am a farmer; on the morning of Feb. 23d deceased was getting breakfast ready and I was in the barn with Moses Kettle; noticed her looking very cross and asked her what was the matter, when she commenced crying and said, "You're always away from home and abusing me;" told her I was not gone from home more than necessary, and she then went to the barn; I sent a boy to the barn to call her; when he came back he told me she was fixing a pole and tying straps to it; went to the barn and saw her fixing a strap to a pole and asked her, "Sarah, what makes you act so? The neighbors are coming to the house;" left the barn and she followed me; she took her baby and went into the next room, and coming back she said she wished she was out of the world, and commenced to cry; about 10 A. M. I got ready and started for the woods to mark logs; deceased was then washing her feet in the kitchen, and she said to me, "I wish you would not go away;" went and marked some logs and coming back toward the house I heard Whitman Abbey call out, "Sarah Jane has killed herself;" upon entering the house I found her lying in the kitchen upon the floor on her back, with a revolver lying at her right side; there were some school children in the room with her; she was then dead, and blood was on her dress at the left breast.

Robert D. Close being sworn said: I am a brother of deceased and reside in the town of Hardenbergh; saw deceased alive last on Sunday afternoon; was telling her I thought of going to Stamford the next summer to work, when she remarked she did not like to have me going away from home so far; she then asked me if sometimes I didn't get tired of life, and I told her "No;" she then said she was tired of living; saw nothing wrong about the house to cause her dejection.

William J. De Silva, Jr., being sworn said: Am a brother to husband of deceased; have for the past three months resided in their house; am unmarried; never saw deceased dejected nor abused by anybody; saw deceased alive last on Sunday; on Monday morning I was at my father's house at Middletown; left my father's house a little after 11 A. M., Feb. 23d, to come to house of deceased; when near the house saw a little boy going toward the house; he was crying; I went to the house and entering the front door, saw the kitchen open and deceased lying on the floor; thought she had fainted and got some water to sprinkle on her face, and raising her head noticed a hole in the breast of her dress and some blood also; saw a pistol lying at her side; her heart was still beating; spoke to deceased, but she did not answer; then went to the door and called for help; there was nobody in the room, nor in the kitchen; the babe was in the crib asleep.

O. M. Allaban being sworn said: I am a practicing physician residing in Margaretville. I have examined the body of Sarah Jane De Silva and find a gun-shot or pistol wound, the ball entering about two inches to the left of the median line, just below her left breast, and passing upward and outward in the direction of the heart and large arteries, without doubt producing death.

VERDICT.

That the said Sarah Jane De Silva came to her death by a pistol shot wound in her breast, and that she came to her death by her own hands and not otherwise.

The following is a copy of a letter found in the house of deceased, and in her own handwriting;

UNCLE BEN:—The reason why I kill myself Demetrius misuses me so I don't want to live. Look after my children that they don't get misused. SARAH.

The woman who thus, by her own hand, ended her life was the wife of a farmer in comfortable circumstances, and only about twenty-six years of age, very prepossessing in appearance and the mother of a young family. By some of her neighbors, who are acquainted with the story of her life, it is supposed she inherited insanity from her father, who was, many years ago, a wealthy and somewhat noted gentleman in Hardenbergh, Sands by name, with the title of Colonel prefixed. Colonel Sands was a widower, and he had a young woman named Delamater for a housekeeper. The woman Delamater, while living as the Colonel's housekeeper, became enciente without being married, and as events afterward proved, Colonel Sands paid a large sum of money to a young man in the neighborhood to run away for the purpose of causing people to suppose he was the father of Miss Delamater's expected baby. Before Miss Delamater became a mother, Colonel Sands, then a man of more than fifty years, married a young woman, when the young man whom he had paid to run away returned and told the story of the fraud. The denouement so chagrined the Colonel that he was noticed at times to act strangely, and he eventually ended his life by cutting a hole through the ice on the Delaware River and drowning himself therein.

Mrs. De Silva, who has so lately committed suicide, is said to be the daughter of the above mentioned Miss Delamater and Colonel Sands.

Town Bonds in Aid of Railroad—A Decision of Importance in this Locality.

The Court of Appeals of this state has very recently rendered a decision in the case of Jenkins vs. the Town of Duanesburgh, relative to the validity of the town bonds in aid of railroads, which settles some important questions pertaining to the issue of said bonds by the towns in this locality. The points passed upon are stated by the Albany correspondent of the Monticello Republican as follows:

First, that the law under which the bonds were issued is constitutional. This is perhaps the controlling question. Second, that the exchange by the commissioners of the bonds of the town for the stock of the railroad was valid and legitimate. Third, that a legalizing act is valid. Fourth, that railroads are public institutions in the same sense that highways are, and come within the right of eminent domain. Fifth, that it being competent for the Legislature to authorize a tax upon the people in aid of such improvements, it follows as an incident to such power that the town through its proper officers can borrow money on its credit, and issue bonds therefor to be paid by future taxation.

The Counsel Fees Case.

The trial on Wednesday was more interesting than any day so far during the present session. Mr. Coykendall was subjected to a rigorous cross-examination concerning his operations with the committee who investigated Brodhead's accounts, and also regarding his interview with Mr. Brodhead. While Mr. Foland was on the stand a number of spectators came in the room, expecting to hear some great revelations. So far this week the case has been pushed by the defense with considerable speed, and if the court continues in session the remainder of the week it is quite likely the case will be closed.

Temperance Prayer Meeting.

A "Temperance Prayer Meeting" will be held in the Second M. E. Cchurch this evening. All friends of the religious temperance work in Kingston are invited to participate.

Citizens' City Convention.

The Citizens' City Convention was held at the Grand Central Hotel last evening, and was called to order by Mr. Enoch Carter.

Mr. Stephen Schoonmaker was chosen Chairman, John Steele Secretary, and G. J. Freileweh Sergeant-at-Arms.

On motion Mr. James G. Lindsley was chosen as the candidate for Mayor.

On motion a formal ballot was taken for Justice of the Peace, with the following result:

Josiah Dubois, Jr.	32
Henry Kreiger	10
James O'Brien	1

On motion an informal ballot was taken for Assessor in the First Department, which resulted as follows:

David Gill	26
Theodore F. Spore	12
Wm. E. Houghtaling	7

Before the formal ballot was taken Mr. P. Freeman Hasbrouck remarked that a citizens' meeting had been held on Monday evening at the Court House, and Theodore F. Spore chosen as Assessor for the First Department, and he was of the opinion that as this was also a Citizens' Convention his nomination should be ratified.

A formal ballot was then taken, which resulted as follows:

David Gill	31
Theodore F. Spore	13
Blank	1

On motion David Gill's nomination was made unanimous.

On motion Daniel B. Stow was chosen as the candidate for Assessor in the Second Department by acclamation.

On motion an informal ballot was taken for Constables in the Western Department, with the following result:

Lewis B. Smith,	28
James O'Brien,	16
Peter Kleiglein,	17
Wm. S. Munson,	11
Peter Carey	10

On motion a formal ballot was taken, with the following result:

Lewis B. Smith,	27
Peter Kleiglein,	22
Wm. S. Munson,	16
James O'Brien,	9

The nomination of Lewis B. Smith and Peter Kleiglein was made unanimous.

On motion an informal ballot was taken for Constables in the Eastern Department, with the following result:

Robert G. Tammany,	24
John Hetzel,	22
James Ryan,	12
Peter Cloonan,	10

On motion a formal ballot was taken, which resulted as follows:

Robert G. Tammany,	28
John Hetzel,	24
James Ryan,	10
Peter Cloonan,	2

On motion a formal ballot was taken for City Sealer, with the following result:

M. J. Ward,	16
John B. Tubby,	13
J. B. Snelling,	5
Joshua Demby,	1
Jeremiah Finch,	7

The nomination of M. J. Ward was made unanimous.

The following City Committee was appointed: P. F. Hasbrouck, Peter Plough, William Still, E. Zang, M. J. Barry, D. C. McMillan, J. D. Derrenbacher, James Fields, Peter Meister.

On motion adjourned.

That New Democratic Paper.

The Daily Freeman says:—"We learn that the project of a new Democratic weekly in this city is progressing, an active committee of leading Democrats being engaged in raising the necessary funds."

We apprehend that the Freeman has made a mistake in this matter. A committee has been appointed to see what may be done towards the publication of a Democratic daily paper—the course of the Freeman being so offensive to Democrats that another daily paper is deemed to be a necessity. This matter has been under consideration for some time, and it is not impossible that it will take an effective shape at an early day. The Freeman may not be as enterprising in spreading this item as it has been in giving currency to the other, which, so far as we can ascertain, has not a particle of foundation.—Kingston Argus.

The project to which the Argus alludes was at first to start a new weekly Democratic paper. It has since, we learn, taken the shape of a daily. So far as The Freeman is concerned it wishes it success. Inasmuch as the Argus man knew nothing of either project until after he had read the item in The Freeman and then flew around town like a hen with her head cut off to find out something, thus pretending to know that it has been under consideration for some time, is extremely amusing. And to pretend that it springs from the course of The Freeman is still more amusing. The Freeman has never pretended to be a Democratic paper; it has never asked for Democratic support, and it has never had it. The Argus, however, has never omitted an opportunity to beg such support, it has been perfectly gorged with it; and if a new Democratic weekly or a Democratic daily is started, the probabilities are very strong that the Argus will no longer have such support. When a Democratic organ is obliged to admit that leading men of its own party have been considering, without consulting its editor, a project to start another Democratic paper, it admits what all Ulster county politicians know, that it is, itself, so offensive to the men of its own party, whom it assumes to lead, and to whom it constantly appeals for support, that a new Democratic paper is a necessity.

Several colored gentlemen who hail from Lapala came to the upper part of the city Tuesday night, and becoming highly exhilarated from excessive potations of Higginsville stimulant, walked into Sutton's hotel in order to have a first-class row. Two of them, Levi Brodhead and Anthony Sampson, pulled off their coats and with a flourish of fists said they wanted to lick some one. After a great deal of blasphemy, Lapala howling and smashing of glasses, Brodhead struck a lame man, Edward Clearwater in the head, cutting him quite badly. Sampson then pulled out a razor and was just going for the scalp of some one, when officer Serrine appeared on the scene and soon had the two gentlemen in limbo.—Brodhead refused to go to jail and had to be knocked down before he could be made to understand the supreme majesty of the law.

The colored chaps were taken before the Recorder on Wednesday; they were fined $20 each, or three months in the Albany penitentiary.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

Town of Hurley.

For Supervisor, J. S. Everett; Town Clerk, Charles Van Steenburgh; Assessor, Benjamin Everett; Justice of the Peace, Ten Eyck De Witt; Commissioner of Highways, Garret Newkirk; Collector, Leander Temple; Overseers of the Poor, Cornelius Hogan, Newkirk Dumond; Constables, Levi Myer, D. J. Elmendorf, James A. Martin, John P. Elmendorf, James P. D. Ellsworth; Inspectors of Election, District No. 1, Alexander Bogart, W. W. Lockwood; District No. 2, Jacob Rosa, John Crispell.

In the town of Shandaken J. H. Risely has been nominated for Supervisor.

Democratic Supervisors' Convention, Third Department.

At the Democratic Supervisors' Convention for the Third Department, held on Friday last, no regular nomination was made. Yesterday afternoon another convention was held at Seba Tiencken's and Jefferson McCausland and Luke Noone were nominated.

Loading an Ice Barge.

Mr. John Wolfer has an ice barge at the breakwater at the mouth of the creek, which he is lading with ice eight inches in thickness, taken from the river.

Answers to Puzzles.

We have received the following answers to the puzzles published in Wednesday's paper:

In answer to the ferry puzzle one of our bright little girls, who calls herself "Mollie," writes to us: "He takes the goat over first, comes back and takes the cabbage over, brings the goat back, leaves it, takes the wolf over, comes back and takes the goat." This is correct, and if we were awarding prizes for answers, which we are not, "Mollie" should have the first one in this class.

"G. Z." answers the fowl problem thusly: "Three geese, fifteen ducks, two sparrows." Kerect. Wm. Quentel also answers the puzzle correctly.

"C. D." says: "Miss E. C. S., I believe, means to say that she met all those wives, cats and kittens as she was going to St. Ives, but if she don't she has not met any going to St. Ives, as the wives, cats and kittens were coming from and not going to St. Ives."

"J. G." is evidently posted on the sparking business, for he (or she) says, in answer to the "true love" puzzle: "Fifty-six years old. That young man must have a funny idea sparking such an old one."

"G. Z." also answers the same puzzle. Can't these two youth hold a conference and compromise the difference in their calculations, somehow? Here's his guess: "Twenty-one years."

The German teacher of the First Lutheran school gives this answer to the goat, wolf and cabbage puzzle of t'other German teacher: The ferryman takes the goat over first, then he comes back and takes the cabbage, and returning takes the goat back again; then he takes the wolf across, after which he returns and brings over the goat, thus getting them all across without leaving either the wolf alone with the goat, or the goat with the cabbage.

Another person furnishes what may be called a shorthand method: Feed the cabbage to the goat, then let the wolf eat the goat, and then carry the wolf over.

And last of all comes Brooks, who gives a correct answer to the ferry problem, same as the foregoing. All right, "Brooksie, old boy."

The Persecution of Mr. Brodhead.

A very good text for a screed upon the "persecution of John C. Brodhead," which we have heard so much about, can be found in the testimony of Wednesday. Mr. Coykendall, it will be seen, swears he offered to carry $300,000 to enable Brodhead to meet his deficiency if he could furnish securities of that amount. If Mr. Brodhead's difficulty, as has been contended by his apologists, arose because of his inability to turn his assets into money, here certainly was a good opportunity for him to meet his obligations. As his friends have argued that it was because he was in a very tight spot that he was obliged to sell his railroad bonds, his refusal to accept the relief offered to him is very good proof he hadn't a sufficient amount of securities.

A Card.

KINGSTON, Feb. 24, 1874.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY FREEMAN—SIR:—In your issue of Tuesday among your local items you refer to a "free fight" having taken place at my saloon in John street on Saturday evening last, there "being a great cry for pistols," &c.; further the fight took place at midnight and that as I did not close my saloon until after that hour you would respectfully request the Board of Aldermen "to look after this gentleman." In answer to the above I beg permission to say: First, that there was no fight in my saloon on the night in question. Second, that my saloon was closed (as it is every night) before twelve o'clock. There were parties in my saloon on Saturday evening who wanted to fight, but on being told to leave they promptly adjourned to the street, where the fight of which you speak took place. I trust that in justice to me and the public you will insert this in your valuable journal. Respectfully Yours,

JOHN P. TOTTER.

Band of Hope.

An entertainment will be given by the Band of Hope connected with the Wurts Street Baptist Sunday School at the church, on Friday evening, Feb. 27th, at 7½ o'clock. The exercises will consist of addresses, dialogues, and singing. Admission tickets 15 cents—may be secured at Wm. Winter's, John H. Allen's and at the door.

Funeral Notice.

The members of Minnehaha Division No. 83, S. of T., are hereby requested to meet at their rooms this day, Feb. 26, 1874, at 1 P. M. sharp, for the purpose of attending the funeral of our deceased brother, Alfred A. Treat, at the Rondout M. E. Church, 2½ o'clock.

By order of the W. P.

H. C. VAN AKEN, Recording Secretary.

Citizens' Department Convention.

The delegates to the Citizens' Supervisors' Convention of the Third Department are requested to meet in convention at Peter Frickle's this (Thursday) evening at 7½ o'clock.

By Order.

The Hampton Singers.

The sale of reserved seats and tickets for the Hampton Singers' Concert will begin on the morning after the Thomas Concert, March 3d. For the accommodarion of parties out of town, Mr. Crane announces that orders for seats and tickets by mail will receive prompt attention. The programme to be offered by our "culled bredern and sistern" is a new and most excellent one.

The Car Accommodations.

The item yesterday concerning the horse car arrangements for the Thomas Concert should have stated that Superintendent Dumont's proposition embraced carrying the people both to and from the concert. The entire force of the road will be put in requisition if necessary, and we hope the condition of Andrew's diagram by Saturday will indicate that all Rondout 's "gwine up"—which reminds us to say that Mr. Dumont also kindly offers the same accommodations for the evening of "The Hampton Singers," concert, March 9th.

A. Sahler H. & L. Co. No. 1, Attention!

All members of A. Sahler H. & L. Co. No. 1 are requested to meet at their rooms on Friday evening, 27th inst. at 7 o'clook sharp.

HENRY E. MCKENZIE, Foreman.

Our shop will be closed hereafter on Sundays. MERRITT BROTHERS, Butchers.

THE TRIBUNE FOR 1874.

A year ago the editor of The Tribune promised to make this journal during 1873 a much more valuable and complete newspaper than it had ever been before. Its facilities for the collection and transmission of intelligence from all parts of the world had been largely increased; its staff of editors, correspondents, and reporters had been strengthened by the engagement of some of the ablest men in the profession; and the editor was resolved to spare neither pains nor money in the effort to make The Tribune the very first newspaper in the world.

It points to the achievements of the past twelve months with pardonable pride. While The Tribune has retained all the excellent features that made it such a favorite in its former days, it has exhibited an enterprise and acuteness in its news department which have been the wonder of all its old friends. Remembering that the chief function of a daily journal is to give its readers the fullest, the best arranged, the most attractive, and the most readable history of the occurrences of the time, it has devoted its best energies to the business, and its success has been universally recognized and applauded. The year has been fruitful of startling events, and every incident has found in The Tribune its promptest, most accurate, and most perfectly equipped historian. A Tribune correspondent was the only civilian who witnessed the surrender of the Virginius, and his picturesque description of that transaction, transmitted by telegraph, is the only account the public has yet seen of an incident upon which depended for many weeks the question of peace or war. The Tribune published the only full and exhaustive account by Atlantic telegraph of the terrible Ville du Havre disaster, giving all the incidents of that catastrophe ten days before other journals received them by the slow course of mails. It distanced all competitors in its thrilling story by cable of the adventures of the Polaris castaways. It anticipated every other paper in the country and even the Government itself, by its graphic narratives of Custer's battles on the Yellowstone. The elaborate and deeply interesting letters of its special correspondent in the West gave the only complete account of the Farmers' Movement ever published in an Eastern paper. The reports of The Tribune presented the important proceedings of the Evangelical Alliance in this city with a fullness and accuracy everywhere the subject of enthusiastic praise. During the panic its daily history of Wall street made it absolutely indispensable to business men; and its special correspondents afterward described the condition of affairs in the manufacturing districts with an ability which no other paper seriously rivaled.

These are mere instances of the uniform success in the most important branch of journalism which has steadily attended The Tribune throughout the year, and may therefore be fairly taken as an earnest of what The Tribune is likely to do hereafter. Its purpose in 1874 is to surpass its previous record, constantly increasing the efficiency of its organization, adding to its resources, and keeping up its ancient celebrity as an organ of cultivated and thoughtful men, and a high authority in literature, science, and the arts. It will continue to devote especial attention to the proceedings of learned bodies, to education, to scientific discoveries and explorations, to new inventions, to agriculture, to the promotion of American industry, and to books, pictures, music, and the drama. Its financial articles have won a peculiarly high reputation, and will still be a prominent feature in its columns. Its reports of the markets have long been distinguished for fullness and accuracy, and its quotations have been accepted as standards in the cattle, produce, and provision trades for many years. Its reports of local affairs are acknowledged to be the most accurate, intelligent and complete; its domestic correspondence is always fresh and valuable; and abroad it is served by the ablest writers and keenest observers engaged upon any American periodical.

While it never can be a neutral in politics, The Tribune is entirely independent of all parties and all partisans. It believes that the mere organ of a clique cannot be a thoroughly good newspaper, and cannot be trusted for impartial and just comment upon current events. It maintains with the old fervor and will always defend the Republican principles of equality and justice with which, under the control of its illustrious founder, Horace Greeley, it was for over thirty years identified. But it values parties solely as means for procuring honest government on sound principles. For the partisans who deplore exposures of corruption or imbecility in high places as likely to hurt the party and hinder their success in holding on to the offices—who insist that a journal of their faith must follow their lead, execute their plans, and defend their acts, it has no feeling save contempt. Standing by its old landmarks, it defends the constitutional guarantees to the liberty of the citizen and the sacredness of the nation's faith with its creditors, insists on the duty of Protection to American Industry, champions all proper measures for developing the material resources of the country, urges wise mean for restricting the evils of intemperance, seeks sedulously to foster the commanding interests of Manufactures and Agriculture. But it holds itself aloof from all entangling alliances, waits on no Caucus or Convention for its opinions, aims to judge every political act of whatever party, separately as it arises, on its own merits, and maintains the liberty of candid and impartial criticism. During the present session of Congress its telegraphic reports from Washington, where it maintains the strongest force of experienced correspondents ever assembled there in the interests of a single journal, will be found incomparably more valuable and more interesting than those of any of its cotemporaries. And finally, in the editorial discussion of public affairs, The Tribune endeavors to combine the utmost frankness of expression and independence of thought with a strict impartiality of judgment and that dignity and refinement of language which befit a family newspaper. It wastes no space in wrangling with other papers, pays no attention to personal abuse, and reserves its columns for its readers' interests, not the editor's grievances.

That there is a popular appreciation of that sort of independent, vigorous, enterprising, and high-toned journalism of which The Tribune is now the chief representative in this or any other country, is sufficiently proved by the results of the past twelve months. The close of 1873 finds this paper more prosperous than it has been at any previous period of its history, and the new year opens for it with the most brilliant prospects. In a short time its mechanical facilities will surpass those of any other journal in the world; and on the completion of its new and magnificent building it will be enabled to introduce various improvements of the most important character.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

The Semi-Weekly Tribune has grown very rapidly in public favor of late. In addition to a careful summary of the news it contains all the best of the foreign and domestic correspondence and leading articles of the Daily;—it gives specially the scientific intelligence (including the proceedings of all American scientific societies), with the best of the book reviews, and the miscellaneous matter relating to education, the arts, religion, &c. It has all the commercial news and market reports; all the agricultural articles of the Weekly; and gives, moreover, regularly a serial work of fiction, presenting in the course of the year three or four of the latest productions of the most popular novelists. As it takes only a few select advertisements, it is enabled to give an unusually large proportion of reading matter, and may be called, considering the extent and variety of its contents, the cheapest newspaper in the world. It is published every Tuesday and Friday, and reaches nearly every post office east of the Mississippi within one or two days of its issue.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

The Weekly Tribune has been for the space of a generation the Farmer's favorite paper. Besides a complete condensation of the news of the week, a selection of literary and miscellaneous reading, and a full page of the best editorials from the Daily, it contains in every number a greater amount of agricultural matter than is furnished by any distinctively agricultural paper. This is prepared expressly for its columns by the best agricultural writers and practical farmers in the United States; and as its contributors are in every part of the country it will be found equally valuable in New England, in the South, on the Pacific slope, or in the Mississippi Valley. Great attention is paid to all subjects connected with the Farm, the Garden, and the Household, and some of the original articles every week are illustrated with wood-cuts. The market quotations of farm produce, cattle, provisions, breadstuffs, dry goods, and all kinds of merchandise, are exceedingly full and scrupulously accurate. The utmost care is bestowed on the typographical arrangement of the paper, and the print is always clear and legible, and generally larger than that of any other New York paper

THE TRIBUNE EXTRAS.

A new feature has been added to American journalism by the valuable Tribune Extra sheets, which have attained such an extraordinary popularity during the past year. They present the fresh fruit of the best intellects of this and other countries, the most remarkable lectures, the most valuable scientific and geographical researches, at a merely nominal price. In the series of 14 Extras already published will be found, reprinted for the most part from the columns of the Daily Tribune, some of the latest lectures of Agassiz, Tyndall and Beecher; the explorations of Prof. Hayden, the full history and description of the Farmers' Movement, the best lessons of the great Vienna Exposition, and the complete report of the proceedings of the Evangelical Alliance. Half a million of the Extras have already been sold, and the demand for them is steadily increasing.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

"Boston, Oct. 25, 1869.
I own Appletons' Cyclopaedia, and use it constantly. It should be in every library, public and private—I would say in every house, within reach of every family. The young should use it.
CHARLES SUMNER."

"I use the 'New American Cyclopaedia' every day, generally many times a day. I think it the best work of the kind in existence. It is singularly well suited to families. The children who grow up in a house where there is a copy of it within reach, can hardly escape becoming well-informed persons. I value it very highly, and am glad of this opportunity of testifying my gratitude.

THE TRIBUNE FOR 1874.

A year ago the editor of The Tribune promised to make this journal during 1873 a much more valuable and complete newspaper than it had ever been before. Its facilities for the collection and transmission of intelligence from all parts of the world had been largely increased; its staff of editors, correspondents, and reporters had been strengthened by the engagement of some of the ablest men in the profession; and the editor was resolved to spare neither pains nor money in the effort to make The Tribune the very first newspaper in the world.

It points to the achievements of the past twelve months with pardonable pride. While The Tribune has retained all the excellent features that made it such a favorite in its former days, it has exhibited an enterprise and acuteness in its news department which have been the wonder of all its old friends. Remembering that the chief function of a daily journal is to give its readers the fullest, the best arranged, the most attractive, and the most readable history of the occurrences of the time, it has devoted its best energies to the business, and its success has been universally recognized and applauded. The year has been fruitful of startling events, and every incident has found in The Tribune its promptest, most accurate, and most perfectly equipped historian. A Tribune correspondent was the only civilian who witnessed the surrender of the Virginius, and his picturesque description of that transaction, transmitted by telegraph, is the only account the public has yet seen of an incident upon which depended for many weeks the question of peace or war. The Tribune published the only full and exhaustive account by Atlantic telegraph of the terrible Ville du Havre disaster, giving all the incidents of that catastrophe ten days before other journals received them by the slow course of mails. It distanced all competitors in its thrilling story by cable of the adventures of the Polaris castaways. It anticipated every other paper in the country and even the Government itself, by its graphic narratives of Custer's battles on the Yellowstone. The elaborate and deeply interesting letters of its special correspondent in the West gave the only complete account of the Farmers' Movement ever published in an Eastern paper. The reports of The Tribune presented the important proceedings of the Evangelical Alliance in this city with a fullness and accuracy everywhere the subject of enthusiastic praise. During the panic its daily history of Wall street made it absolutely indispensable to business men; and its special correspondents afterward described the condition of affairs in the manufacturing districts with an ability which no other paper seriously rivaled.

These are mere instances of the uniform success in the most important branch of journalism which has steadily attended The Tribune throughout the year, and may therefore be fairly taken as an earnest of what The Tribune is likely to do hereafter. Its purpose in 1874 is to surpass its previous record, constantly increasing the efficiency of its organization, adding to its resources, and keeping up its ancient celebrity as an organ of cultivated and thoughtful men, and a high authority in literature, science, and the arts. It will continue to devote especial attention to the proceedings of learned bodies, to education, to scientific discoveries and explorations, to new inventions, to agriculture, to the promotion of American industry, and to books, pictures, music, and the drama. Its financial articles have won a peculiarly high reputation, and will still be a prominent feature in its columns. Its reports of the markets have long been distinguished for fullness and accuracy, and its quotations have been accepted as standards in the cattle, produce, and provision trades for many years. Its reports of local affairs are acknowledged to be the most accurate, intelligent and complete; its domestic correspondence is always fresh and valuable; and abroad it is served by the ablest writers and keenest observers engaged upon any American periodical.

While it never can be a neutral in politics, The Tribune is entirely independent of all parties and all partisans. It believes that the mere organ of a clique cannot be a thoroughly good newspaper, and cannot be trusted for impartial and just comment upon current events. It maintains with the old fervor and will always defend the Republican principles of equality and justice with which, under the control of its illustrious founder, Horace Greeley, it was for over thirty years identified. But it values parties solely as means for procuring honest government on sound principles. For the partisans who deplore exposures of corruption or imbecility in high places as likely to hurt the party and hinder their success in holding on to the offices—who insist that a journal of their faith must follow their lead, execute their plans, and defend their acts, it has no feeling save contempt. Standing by its old landmarks, it defends the constitutional guarantees to the liberty of the citizen and the sacredness of the nation's faith with its creditors, insists on the duty of Protection to American Industry, champions all proper measures for developing the material resources of the country, urges wise mean for restricting the evils of intemperance, seeks sedulously to foster the commanding interests of Manufactures and Agriculture. But it holds itself aloof from all entangling alliances, waits on no Caucus or Convention for its opinions, aims to judge every political act of whatever party, separately as it arises, on its own merits, and maintains the liberty of candid and impartial criticism. During the present session of Congress its telegraphic reports from Washington, where it maintains the strongest force of experienced correspondents ever assembled there in the interests of a single journal, will be found incomparably more valuable and more interesting than those of any of its contemporaries. And finally, in the editorial discussion of public affairs, The Tribune endeavors to combine the utmost frankness of expression and independence of thought with a strict impartiality of judgment and that dignity and refinement of language which befit a family newspaper. It wastes no space in wrangling with other papers, pays no attention to personal abuse, and reserves its columns for its readers' interests, not the editor's grievances.

That there is a popular appreciation of that sort of independent, vigorous, enterprising, and high-toned journalism of which The Tribune is now the chief representative in this or any other country, is sufficiently proved by the results of the past twelve months. The close of 1873 finds this paper more prosperous than it has been at any previous period of its history, and the new year opens for it with the most brilliant prospects. In a short time its mechanical facilities will surpass those of any other journal in the world; and on the completion of its new and magnificent building it will be enabled to introduce various improvements of the most important character.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

The Semi-Weekly Tribune has grown very rapidly in public favor of late. In addition to a careful summary of the news it contains all the best of the foreign and domestic correspondence and leading articles of the Daily;—it gives specially the scientific intelligence (including the proceedings of all American scientific societies), with the best of the book reviews, and the miscellaneous matter relating to education, the arts, religion, &c. It has all the commercial news and market reports; all the agricultural articles of the Weekly; and gives, moreover, regularly a serial work of fiction, presenting in the course of the year three or four of the latest productions of the most popular novelists. As it takes only a few select advertisements, it is enabled to give an unusually large proportion of reading matter, and may be called, considering the extent and variety of its contents, the cheapest newspaper in the world. It is published every Tuesday and Friday, and reaches nearly every post office east of the Mississippi within one or two days of its issue.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

The Weekly Tribune has been for the space of a generation the Farmer's favorite paper. Besides a complete condensation of the news of the week, a selection of literary and miscellaneous reading, and a full page of the best editorials from the Daily, it contains in every number a greater amount of agricultural matter than is furnished by any distinctively agricultural paper. This is prepared expressly for its columns by the best agricultural writers and practical farmers in the United States; and as its contributors are in every part of the country it will be found equally valuable in New England, in the South, on the Pacific slope, or in the Mississippi Valley. Great attention is paid to all subjects connected with the Farm, the Garden, and the Household, and some of the original articles every week are illustrated with wood-cuts. The market quotations of farm produce, cattle, provisions, breadstuffs, dry goods, and all kinds of merchandise, are exceedingly full and scrupulously accurate. The utmost care is bestowed on the typographical arrangement of the paper, and the print is always clear and legible, and generally larger than that of any other New York paper

THE TRIBUNE EXTRAS.

A new feature has been added to American journalism by the valuable Tribune Extra sheets, which have attained such an extraordinary popularity during the past year. They present the fresh fruit of the best intellects of this and other countries, the most remarkable lectures, the most valuable scientific and geographical researches, at a merely nominal price. In the series of 14 Extras already published will be found, reprinted for the most part from the columns of the Daily Tribune, some of the latest lectures of Agassiz, Tyndall and Beecher; the explorations of Prof. Hayden, the full history and description of the Farmers' Movement, the best lessons of the great Vienna Exposition, and the complete report of the proceedings of the Evangelical Alliance. Half a million of the Extras have already been sold, and the demand for them is steadily increasing.

Rondout, Jan. 26th, 1874.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

TWO LARGE

Hardware Stores.

Kingston and Ellenville,

ULSTER COUNTY, N. Y.

SAHLER, REYNOLDS & DU BOIS,

(Successors to SAHLER & REYNOLDS.)

Having purchased the Hardware store of E. G Fuller & Co., at Ellenville, and stocked it with large and complete assortment of goods, are now prepared to run it as a branch of their Kingston house.

We have now on hand, at our two establishments, the ever offered to the people of Ulster and adjoining Counties, and respectfully ask a critical examination of the same by a discriminating public.

We Sell Both at Wholesale and Retail.

All goods bought direct from the Manufacturers, and will be sold accordingly. Attention is especially invited to the stock of

FARMING IMPLEMENTS AND HARVESTING TOOLS,

Consisting of Plows, Straw Cutters, Corn Shellers, Horse Rakes, Shovels, Spades, Hoes, Scythes and Snaths, Grain Cradles, &c. Also, a large and varied assortment of RONDOUT P. O., N. Y.

A LIBRARY OF UNIVERSAL INFORMATION.

THE NEW

American Cyclopædia.

Complete in 16 Volumes.

This important work presents a panoramic view of all human knowledge, as it exists at the present moment. It embraces and popularizes every subject that can be thought of, and contains an inexhaustible fund of accurate and practical information. No topic, in brief, is omitted, upon which information can be desired. The work is a library in itself; it is a complete universal instructor, and opens to the student and general reader the whole field of knowledge.

THE ANNUAL CYCLOPÆDIA.

Commenced in 1861.

TWELVE VOLUMES NOW OUT.

The same price per volume, and uniform with the NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPAEDIA.

PUBLISHED ONE VOLUME ANNUALLY.

REGISTERING ALL THE IMPORTANT EVENTS OF EACH YEAR—VALUABLE AS A WORK OF REFERENCE.

OPINIONS OF

DISTINGUISHED AMERICANS.

"No. 17 Arlington St., London, England.
Jan. 6. 1870.

"I thank you for the opportunity of expressing my opinion of the great value of the 'NEW AMERICAN' and 'ANNUAL CYCLOPÆDIA.' I own the work and have it with me here, and am in the habit of consulting it every day to my very great advantage. It is most admirable. J. L. MOTLEY,
"U. S. Minister to the Court of St. James."

"Philadelphia, Nov. 1, 1869.

I consider the New American Cyclopaedia, published by D. Appleton & Co., vastly superior for the American reader to any other Cyclopaedia now before the public. REV. BISHOP SIMPSON."

"Boston, Oct. 25, 1869.

I own Appletons' Cyclopaedia, and use it constantly. It should be in every library, public and private—I would say in every house, within reach of every family. The young should use it.
CHARLES SUMNER."

"I use the 'New American Cyclopaedia' every day, generally many times a day. I think it the best work of the kind in existence. It is singularly well suited to families. The children who grow up in a house where there is a copy of it within reach, can hardly escape becoming well-informed persons. I value it very highly, and am glad of this opportunity of testifying my gratitude.
JAMES PARTON."

"Tribune Office, N. Y. City, Oct. 30, 1869.

MY DEAR SIR: I have used the 'New American Cyclopaedia' since the first volume came into existence, and deem it the best work of the kind in print. Yours, &c., HORACE GREELEY."

"North Shore, S. I., N. Y., Oct. 19, 1869.

Appletons' Cyclopaedia is unquestionably the best popular manual of general reference for an American. GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS.

"Washington, Nov. 12, 1869.

DEAR SIR: I quite agree with Mr. Curtis, that the 'New American Cyclopaedia' is 'the best manual of general reference for an American.' The annual continuations are also of great value.
S. P. CHASE.
